CLEP College Level Exam Program

CLEPs are nationally recognized exams used to assess college-level knowledge. The exams are offered in multiple subjects.

What student fees are involved with CLEP?	◆ Exam fees
Will this class still count for a high school credit and meet remaining graduation requirements?	◆ CLEP is not a course; it does not meet high school graduation requirements
Will this class get recognized by my high school according to state policies?	◆ CLEP is not a course; it does not meet high school graduation requirements
What determines if I could receive any postsecondary credit?	◆ The student's CLEP exam score
What determines if I will have any postsecondary credit awarded?	◆ Determined by individual postsecondary institutions ◆ Awarded upon matriculation
What is the structure of CLEP?	◆ Exam
Who is the provider of CLEP?	◆ The College Board

TN Department of Education