

I-CAR Refinish Technician ProLevel 1

Aligned Program of Study: Automotive Collision Repair

Aligned Course:

- Collision Repair: Painting & Refinishing (6063)

Description

The exam for Refinish Technician ProLevel 1 includes content on content on hazardous materials, personal safety, and refinish safety; trim and hardware; corrosion protection; refinish supplement; detailing; waterborne products, systems, and application; hazardous airborne pollutant reduction; and liquid and solid hazardous waste storage and disposal overview. The I-CAR Refinish Technician ProLevel 1 certification is obtainable through an end of program exam for students who complete study through the I-CAR curriculum, Professional Development Program- Education Edition (PDP-EE). I-CAR curriculum is commonly used in industry to train auto body and related repairers. After completing the I-CAR ProLevel 1 curriculum and passing the aligned I-CAR end of program exam, students receive the Platinum designation. The exam for Refinish Technician ProLevel 1 includes content on hazardous materials, personal safety, and refinish safety; trim and hardware; corrosion protection; refinish supplement; detailing; waterborne products, systems, and application; hazardous airborne pollutant reduction; and liquid and solid hazardous waste storage and disposal overview.

Materials and Resources

A number of resources including a guide to getting started and order forms are available at <https://www.i-car.com/Home/Educational-Programs/Career-Technical-School-Programs/Resources-and-Forms>.

Testing Sites

Tests are taken online at the school and must be given by a proctor following local and state testing requirements.

Required Instructor Qualifications

The instructor must attend a free I-CAR Overview Webinar and complete an Instructor Technical Evaluation (ITE) for each class taught.

Test Owner and Registration

Inter-Industry Conference on Auto Collision Repair

Phone: (888) 422-7211

<https://www.i-car.com/>

Registration Procedures

Schools begin by purchasing the PDP-EE curriculum package. Students establish individual accounts and progress through the curriculum beginning with the Intro to Collision Repair series and followed by Non-Structural and/or Painting and Refinishing ProLevel 1 content. As students complete the program, another form must be completed and turned in to I-CAR to purchase the end of program exams.

Exam Code	Refinish Technician
Website	https://www.i-car.com/Home/Educational-Programs/Career-Technical-School-Programs/PDP-Education-Edition-(PDP-EE)
Number of Questions	Approximately 50
Type of Questions	Multiple choice
Length of Test	Unknown
Passing Score	Unknown
Price	In addition to an annual license fee of $1,100, there is a per student fee of $100 for the ProLevel 1 exams and $50 per student fee for the Introduction to Collision Repair Series which is a prerequisite to ProLevel 1.