

Wave 6 Episodes of Care

Wave 6 episodes include:

- Skin and soft tissue infection
- Neonatal (Age 31 weeks or less)
- Neonatal (Age 32 to 36 weeks)
- Neonatal (Age 37 weeks or greater)
- HIV
- Diabetes acute exacerbation
- Pancreatitis

Where we are in the process: Design Phase (Calendar Year 2016)

The Technical Advisory Groups (TAGs) met in the fall of 2016. The preview period for wave 6 is scheduled to begin in the spring of 2017. The performance period will begin calendar year 2018.

Episodes included in Wave 6:

- Skin and soft tissue infection (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)
- Neonatal (Age 31 weeks or less) (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)
- Neonatal (Age 32 to 36 weeks) (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)
- Neonatal (Age 37 weeks or greater) (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)
- HIV (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)

- Diabetes Acute Exacerbation (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)
- Pancreatitis (Summary) - (Detailed business requirements: complete technical description of the episode) - (Configuration file: complete list of codes used to implement the episode)

Episode of Care Thresholds

Sample Provider Episode of Care Report