

Vicky Hutchings serves as the Strategic Business Solutions manager for the Tennessee Department of Safety & Homeland Security. In this role, Vicky oversees LAN/WAN security, procurement, server development and maintenance, and desktop support. But more importantly, her unit provides innovative solutions that increase efficiencies, empower staff, and enhance value for all agency customers.

Hutchings holds a Master of Public Administration degree, from the University of Phoenix. Prior to the State of Tennessee, Hutchings worked in the Finance and Insurance industries.