RE: Procedure for Reporting Convicted Sex Offender on Facebook

On Facebook, the “Report a convicted sex offender” FAQ states that “convicted sex offenders are prohibited from registering for our service.” It explains that we will promptly remove these accounts from the site with the proper documentation (sex offender registry, news article link, etc). You can find the “Report a convicted sex offender” FAQ through the following link:

<http://www.facebook.com/help/?faq=15160>

From here, you can report accounts from the “Report a Convicted Sex Offender” contact form found at http://www.facebook.com/help/contact.php?show\_form=wos\_sex\_offender.

Lastly, we offer the “Legal Inquiries” contact form to be used by officials only (law enforcement agent, or member of a law office/practice or government agency). This can be found at http://www.facebook.com/help/contact.php?show\_form=legal\_inquiries. However, we encourage officials to also use the “Report a Convicted Sex Offender” contact form as it is specific for these types of reports.
