

STATE OF TENNESSEE
BOARD OF PROBATION AND PAROLE
404 JAMES ROBERTSON PARKWAY, SUITE 1300
NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE 37243-0850 (615) 741-1673

DATE

DISTRICT ATTORNEY GENERALS
PRESIDING JUDGES SHERIFFS
VICTIM-WITNESS COORDINATORS
POLICE CHIEFS

NOTICE OF PAROLE HEARINGS

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

Enclosed is the Parole Eligibility Report for the month of _____, 2005. The listed offenders are scheduled to be heard at the _____ on _____.

In rulings by the Tennessee Court of Appeals, Tony Baldwin vs. Tennessee Board of Probation and Parole, et al, 125 S.W.3d 429 (Tenn.App 2003), the Court determined that Members of the Board of Probation and Parole may not decline parole review consideration for longer than six (6) years.

The inmate(s) listed below were previously considered for parole and were declined longer than six (6) years, and are therefore being scheduled for a new parole hearing. Should you wish to submit any comments, you may do so in writing or attend the hearing.

Please contact Institutional Probation/Parole Officer _____ if you desire the exact date of the hearing. Please notify this office of any change of address.

Respectfully,