	2023 Standards
Instructional Leader Candidates shall:	Instructional Leader Candidates shall:
a. Demonstrate a foundational understanding of content and pedagogical knowledge of literacy instruction in order to support teachers in:	a. Demonstrate a foundational understanding of content and pedagogical knowledge of literacy instruction in order to support teachers in:
<ol> <li>Effective instruction in foundational literacy skills including phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension.</li> </ol>	1. Effective instruction in foundational literacy skills including phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension.
<ol><li>Differentiating instruction for students with advanced reading skills and students with significant reading deficiencies.</li></ol>	<ol> <li>Providing instruction for students with advanced reading skills and students with significant reading deficiencies through access points and instructional scaffolds.</li> <li>Identify the characteristics of dyslexia and provide effective instruction for teaching students with these characteristics using evidence-based, multisensory interventions.</li> </ol>
3. Identify the characteristics of dyslexia and provide effective instruction for teaching students with these characteristics using evidence-based, multisensory interventions.
student (e.g. culture, socioeconomic status, ability) and be able to support in	teracy acquisition and child development as it relates to the uniqueness of each struction that responds to these differences.
student (e.g. culture, socioeconomic status, ability) and be able to support in c. Create and support a school culture and environment that:
student (e.g. culture, socioeconomic status, ability) and be able to support in c. Create and support a school culture and environment that: 1. Sees language diversity as a strength;
<ul> <li>student (e.g. culture, socioeconomic status, ability) and be able to support in</li> <li>c. Create and support a school culture and environment that: <ol> <li>Sees language diversity as a strength;</li> <li>Values and uses diverse literacy resources; and</li> </ol> </li> </ul>	struction that responds to these differences.
<ul> <li>student (e.g. culture, socioeconomic status, ability) and be able to support in</li> <li>c. Create and support a school culture and environment that: <ol> <li>Sees language diversity as a strength;</li> <li>Values and uses diverse literacy resources; and</li> <li>Provides all readers with access to highly effective teachers.</li> </ol> </li> </ul>	struction that responds to these differences.
<ul> <li>student (e.g. culture, socioeconomic status, ability) and be able to support in</li> <li>c. Create and support a school culture and environment that: <ol> <li>Sees language diversity as a strength;</li> <li>Values and uses diverse literacy resources; and</li> <li>Provides all readers with access to highly effective teachers.</li> </ol> </li> <li>d. Through a shared vision, collaboratively develop evidence-based literacy g</li> </ul>	struction that responds to these differences. oals for the purpose of increasing student achievement.

2021/2023 EPP Literacy Standards for Instructional Leader Programs

	h. Identify purposeful and appropriate assessments (including screeners, diagnostic, and progress monitoring) for characteristics of dyslexia and demonstrate an understanding of how to support implementation of appropriate interventions.
h. Use, and recognize the importance of, outcome data in developing and implementing school structures and policies that support student growth in literacy. Specifically, leaders should be prepared to facilitate teams in the analysis and interpretation of relevant literacy data to inform decision making (e.g., intervention selection, intervention placement, professional development goals, etc.).	i. (previously h) Use, and recognize the importance of, outcome data in developing and implementing school structures and policies that support student growth in literacy. Specifically, leaders should be prepared to facilitate teams in the analysis and interpretation of relevant literacy data to inform decision making (e.g., intervention selection, intervention placement, professional development goals, etc.).
i. Support the development and planning of professional learning activities that are grounded in effective evidence-based practices of literacy and high- quality instructional materials.	j. (previously i) Support the development and planning of professional learning activities that are grounded in effective evidence-based practices of literacy and high-quality instructional materials.
	k. (previously j) Ensure professional learning opportunities for educators related to literacy are grounded in formative and summative data, differentiated, builds capacity of all educators, and are on-going and sustainable.
k. Describe design principles of high-quality instructional materials in English language arts and literacy, including use of evidence-based practices; alignment to grade-level standards; coherent progressions of content and tasks; and access points supporting all students to engage meaningfully in grade-appropriate learning centered on complex texts.	I. (previously k) Describe design principles of high-quality instructional materials in English language arts and literacy, including use of evidence-based practices; alignment to grade-level standards; coherent progressions of content and tasks; and access points supporting all students to engage meaningfully in grade-appropriate learning centered on complex texts.
I. Support teachers to implement high-quality instructional materials with integrity to their design principles, choosing scaffolds and supports matched to individual students' strengths and needs while maintaining grade- appropriate rigor and alignment to Tennessee Academic Standards in all literacy instruction.	m. (previously I) Support teachers to implement high-quality instructional materials with integrity to their design principles, choosing instructional scaffolds and supports matched to individual students' strengths and needs while maintaining grade-appropriate rigor and alignment to Tennessee Academic Standards in all literacy instruction.
m. Support teachers to use unit and lesson preparation protocols focused on intellectual preparation (i.e., a focused form of lesson preparation that helps a teacher prepare to teach using existing lesson plans within high-quality instructional materials in lieu of creating their own lesson plans outside of	n. (previously m) Support teachers to use unit and lesson preparation protocols focused on intellectual preparation (i.e., a focused form of lesson preparation that helps a teacher prepare to teach using existing lesson plans within high-quality instructional materials in lieu of creating their own lesson the adopted high-quality instructional materials) and internalization of high- quality instructional materials (i.e., the act of teacher practicing the lessons with HQIM to effectively deliver lessons) to prepare to deliver instruction.	plans outside of the adopted high-quality instructional materials) and internalization of high-quality instructional materials (i.e., the act of teacher practicing the lessons with HQIM to effectively deliver lessons) to prepare lessons that adequately meet the diverse literacy needs of all students.

	o. Support teachers to implement dyslexia-specific interventions with integrity through choosing the appropriate interventions matched to the student's individual needs.
n. Demonstrate knowledge of core concepts of development, such as brain development and architecture, toxic stress, "serve and return" interaction, and resilience. Candidates must also be familiar with Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), strategies to deescalate, and secondary traumatic stress.	p. (previously n) Demonstrate knowledge of core concepts of development, such as brain development and architecture, toxic stress, "serve and return" interaction, and resilience. Candidates must also be familiar with Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), strategies to deescalate, and secondary traumatic stress.
o. Demonstrate knowledge of trauma informed discipline practices to ensure students can access reading instruction, including principles such as:	q. (previously o) Demonstrate knowledge of trauma informed discipline practices to ensure students can access reading instruction, including principles such as:
1. Effective and engaging instruction and classroom/behavior management.	1. Effective and engaging instruction and classroom/behavior management.
<ol> <li>Accomplishing school discipline by preventing misbehavior before it occurs and using positive, safe, and respectful interventions after it occurs.</li> </ol>	2. Accomplishing school discipline by preventing misbehavior before it occurs and using positive, safe, and respectful interventions after it occurs.
<ol><li>Holding students accountable without compromising school safety, respect, and dignity.</li></ol>	3. Holding students accountable without compromising school safety, respect, and dignity.
4. Using disciplinary actions that foster awareness of behavioral patterns and trigger and restore relationships with peers and adults in the school community.	4. Using disciplinary actions that foster awareness of behavioral patterns and trigger and restore relationships with peers and adults in the school community.
<ol><li>Building positive relationships with students and referring students to appropriate mental health supports when needed.</li></ol>	5. Building positive relationships with students and referring students to appropriate mental health supports when needed.
6. Understanding the potential effects of adversity and trauma on student behavior and considering the reasons behind negative behaviors when determining disciplinary action.	6. Understanding the potential effects of adversity and trauma on student behavior and considering the reasons behind negative behaviors when determining disciplinary action.

7. Avoiding re-traumatizing students by eliminating the use of potentially traumatic, violent, or shaming disciplinary practices.	7. Avoiding re-traumatizing students by eliminating the use of potentially traumatic, violent, or shaming disciplinary practices.
8. Offering students an opportunity to learn from their mistakes to reengage the student in learning.	8. Offering students an opportunity to learn from their mistakes to reengage the student in learning.
(p) Demonstrate knowledge of effective trauma informed discipline policies, that:	r. (previously p) Demonstrate knowledge of effective trauma informed discipline policies, that:
1. Balance accountability with an understanding of traumatic behavior;	<ol> <li>Balance accountability with an understanding of traumatic behavior;</li> </ol>
<ol><li>Teach school and classroom rules while reinforcing that violent or abusive behavior is not allowed at school;</li></ol>	<ol><li>Teach school and classroom rules while reinforcing that violent or abusive behavior is not allowed at school;</li></ol>
<ol> <li>Minimize disruptions to the educational environment with an emphasis on positive behavioral supports and behavioral intervention plans;</li> </ol>	<ol> <li>Minimize disruptions to the educational environment with an emphasis on positive behavioral supports and behavioral intervention plans;</li> </ol>
4. Create consistent rules and consequences; and	4. Create consistent rules and consequences; and
5. Model respectful, non-violent relationships.	5. Model respectful, non-violent relationships.