

PBS Lesson Series

ELA, Grade 2, Lesson 13

Teacher Packet

Peter's mother went to the bakery and warned the children to not get into mischief. Peter disobeyed and got into mischief by going to Mr. McGregor's garden. He was almost caught and trembled. He had to scutter to escape. Peter made it home, but he didn't feel well. His mother gave him a dose of tea and put him to bed as Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cotton-tail got bread and milk and blackberries. The moral of the story is that there are consequences if you break the rules.

1

3

2

4

Myth

- Stories from many years ago, passed down by word of mouth.
- Characters- supernatural beings (gods) or heroes.
- Plots- explained events in nature or taught people how to behave.

Legend

- Stories from many years ago,, passed down by word of mouth.
- Characters- normal people
- Plot- teach values to children to help them become better people.
- Other- stories taken from a supposed reality rooted in history, but have elements of fantasy.

The Legend of the Dipper

- Brave to get her mom the water
- Kind – she helps the dog
- Shared water with a stranger
- Unselfish – thought of others before herself

A legend is a story that teaches values, or how to be a good person. The character in the story does things for others even though she has very little.

What are the values The Legend of the Dipper tries to teach? How does the character show these values throughout the story?