

TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION OFFICE OF CIVIL RIGHTS

CIVIL RIGHTS DIRECTOR

The Commissioner of Education appoints the Director of the Office for Civil Rights. The Director is responsible for oversight of all civil rights compliance including but not limited to the initiation and resolution of compliance reviews or complaint investigations of Local Education Agencies or State Schools as defined in the Case resolution and Investigation Manual. The Director also works with the Civil Rights Compliance Team to ensure the Tennessee Department of Education and all of its divisions, offices and sub-components are in full compliance with the applicable civil rights statutes.
