

State of Tennessee

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 468

By Representative Sparks

and

Senator Tracy

A RESOLUTION to commend Pat Waggoner for his honorable and astute service to the people of Tennessee.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should pause to specially recognize those estimable public servants who have dedicated themselves to improving the quality of life for their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, Pat Waggoner is one such commendable citizen who evinces the greatest integrity and probity in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, a native of Nashville, Mr. Waggoner is a 1969 graduate of Nashville's Hillwood High School; he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Lipscomb University in 1973; and

WHEREAS, on March 30, 1974, Pat Waggoner was joined in holy matrimony to his beloved wife, Elizabeth, at the West End Church of Christ in Nashville; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Waggoner began his illustrious career at Genesco, Inc., where he rendered twenty-one years of sterling service as an auditor, cash management director, financial operations director, risk manager, and retirement trust investment manager; and

WHEREAS, a thoughtful and dedicated leader, Pat Waggoner served with acumen and alacrity as the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of Folk-Jordan Real Estate Co., Inc., for several years and earned the respect of his clients and colleagues alike due to the exemplary quality of his work; and

WHEREAS, as an Affiliate Broker and Partner on the Bogle-Waggoner Team at Coldwell Banker Barnes, Mr. Waggoner currently provides the highest level of professional and quality service as he masterfully assists his clients in achieving their real estate business and investment objectives; and

WHEREAS, Pat Waggoner is an active and devout member of Crieve Hall Church of Christ, where he faithfully serves as an elder, Bible school teacher, and song leader; and

WHEREAS, known throughout the region for his solid Christian belief and passion for evangelism, Mr. Waggoner preaches once a month at Metro's Criminal Justice Center and teaches a Bible class at Metro's Offender Re-Entry Center, working assiduously to provide hope and communicate God's love to those in need of spiritual guidance; and

WHEREAS, Pat Waggoner is also a dedicated civic leader who has distinguished himself as a public-spirited citizen of the highest order through his membership with the South Nashville Civitan Club and the South Nashville Exchange Club, his service as the Commissioner of a men's Metro Softball League, and his participation in the men's Basketball League; and

WHEREAS, his many professional accomplishments aside, Mr. Waggoner is most grateful for the love and support he shares with his wife, Elizabeth; their children, Martha Waggoner, Paula Vergne and her husband Matt Vergne, and Phil Waggoner; and their beautiful granddaughter, Sophie; he also treasured many years with his son, Daniel, before he went onto his great reward; and

HJR 468

WHEREAS, an extremely giving person who often reaches out with compassion to people whom life has treated unkindly, Pat Waggoner epitomizes the ideal of the consummate professional, dedicated public servant, and reliable friend and neighbor; and

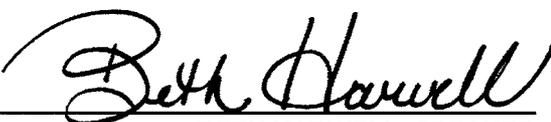

WHEREAS, Mr. Waggoner is wholly committed to the noble precepts of public service that have earned Tennessee recognition as the "Volunteer State," and he should be specially recognized; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby commend Pat Waggoner for his honorable and astute service to the people of Tennessee, applaud his vaunted level of success and his dedication to excellence, and extend to him our best wishes for every continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
