A RESOLUTION to recognize the Honorable Barbara Haynes on the occasion of her Retirement as Judge for the Third Circuit of Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should pay tribute to those sterling individuals who, through their extraordinary efforts and vision, have distinguished themselves as community leaders; and

WHEREAS, the Honorable Judge Barbara Haynes is one such outstanding citizen who has rendered public and civic service with extraordinary dedication, giving unselfishly of herself, her time, and her talents for the greater good; and

WHEREAS, throughout her exemplary twenty-nine-year tenure on the bench, Judge Haynes has served Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County with distinction, beginning with her election as Judge of Division I of the General Session Court in 1982 and continuing through each subsequent election to the Third Circuit Court since 1990; and

WHEREAS, a 1955 graduate of Isaac Litton High School in Nashville, Judge Haynes obtained her Bachelor of Science degree in 1959 from the University of Tennessee, where she was President of Pi Beta Phi, a member of the Mortar Board, a Torchbearer, and included in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; and

WHEREAS, in 1976, Judge Haynes earned her Juris Doctorate of Law at the Nashville School of Law, graduating second in her class after serving as President of the Honor Council and a member of Cooper's Inn of Court; and

WHEREAS, prior to her illustrious career as Circuit Court Judge for the Third Circuit of Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County, Barbara Haynes rendered sterling service as a legal assistant on the staff of a member of the United States Congress and then as an attorney in the law firm of Haynes and Haynes for five years; and

WHEREAS, seeking to serve her community, Barbara Haynes was elected Judge of Division I of the General Sessions Court of Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County in 1982, and subsequently won election to the Third Circuit Court in 1990, 1998, and 2006; and

WHEREAS, from 1986 until 1994, Judge Barbara Haynes served as Chair of the Tennessee Sentencing Commission which undertook a comprehensive review of the sentencing guidelines contained in the Tennessee Code Annotated that resulted in the enactment of major legislation to extensively revise the criminal statutes of the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, respected by her peers and colleagues for her keen insight and commitment to public service, Judge Haynes has served as President of the Tennessee General Sessions Judges, Presiding Judge of the State Trial Courts, member of the Advisory Commission for Civil, Criminal and Appellate Rules, member of the Legislative Committee for the Nashville Bar Association, and co-chair for the Legal Aid Society 2009 Campaign; and

WHEREAS, a Fellow and member of the American Bar Association, the Tennessee Bar Association and the Nashville Bar Association, Judge Barbara Haynes is a distinguished
