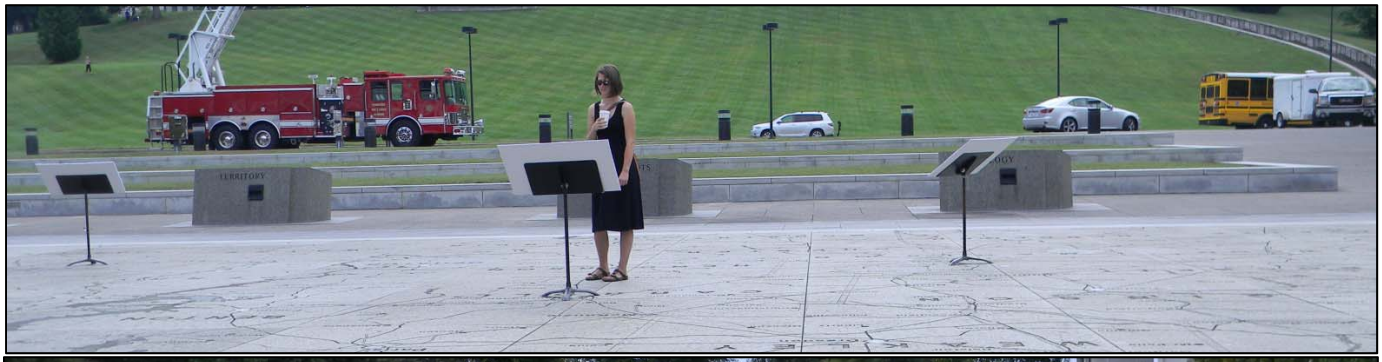
State Fire Marshal's Office
2013 Fire Prevention Week Kick-off

Set-up begins on the Bicentennial Mall State Park Plaza

The TFACA truck welcomes all

Commerce & Insurance Commissioner/State Fire Marshal Julie McPeak makes her address



Signs on the map describe fire incidents that occurred in 2013 & include tips on how they could have been prevented

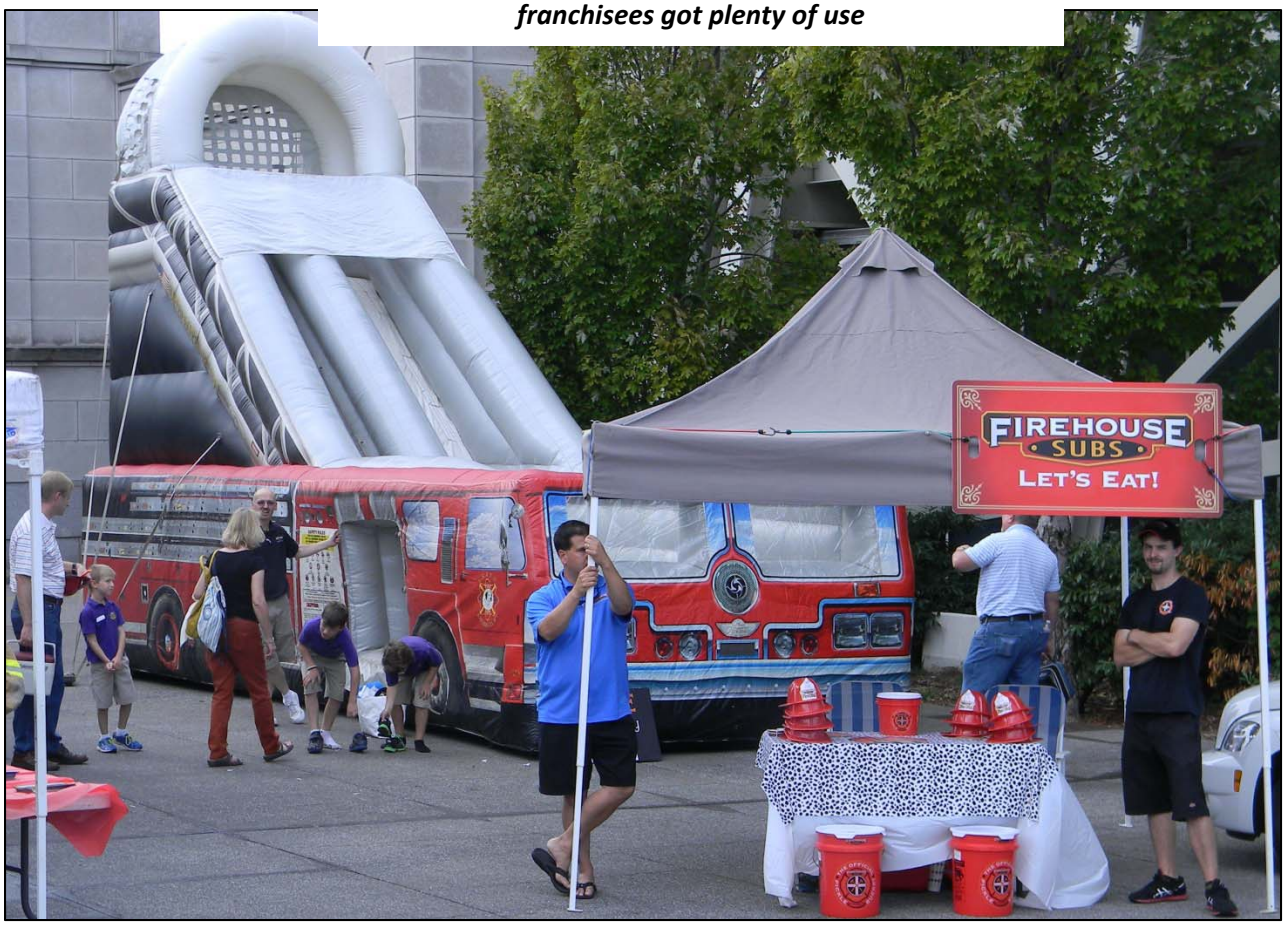
The Red Cross ready to hand out some great information

Nashville Fire Department's antique fire truck is always a hit

Safe Kids provides a mom with great safety information

TN Division of Forestry had their dozer unit on display with Smokey Bear!

The fire truck slide provided by Middle TN Firehouse Subs franchisees got plenty of use



The Shriner clowns join in on the fun

The turnout gear try-on station provides some good photo opportunities

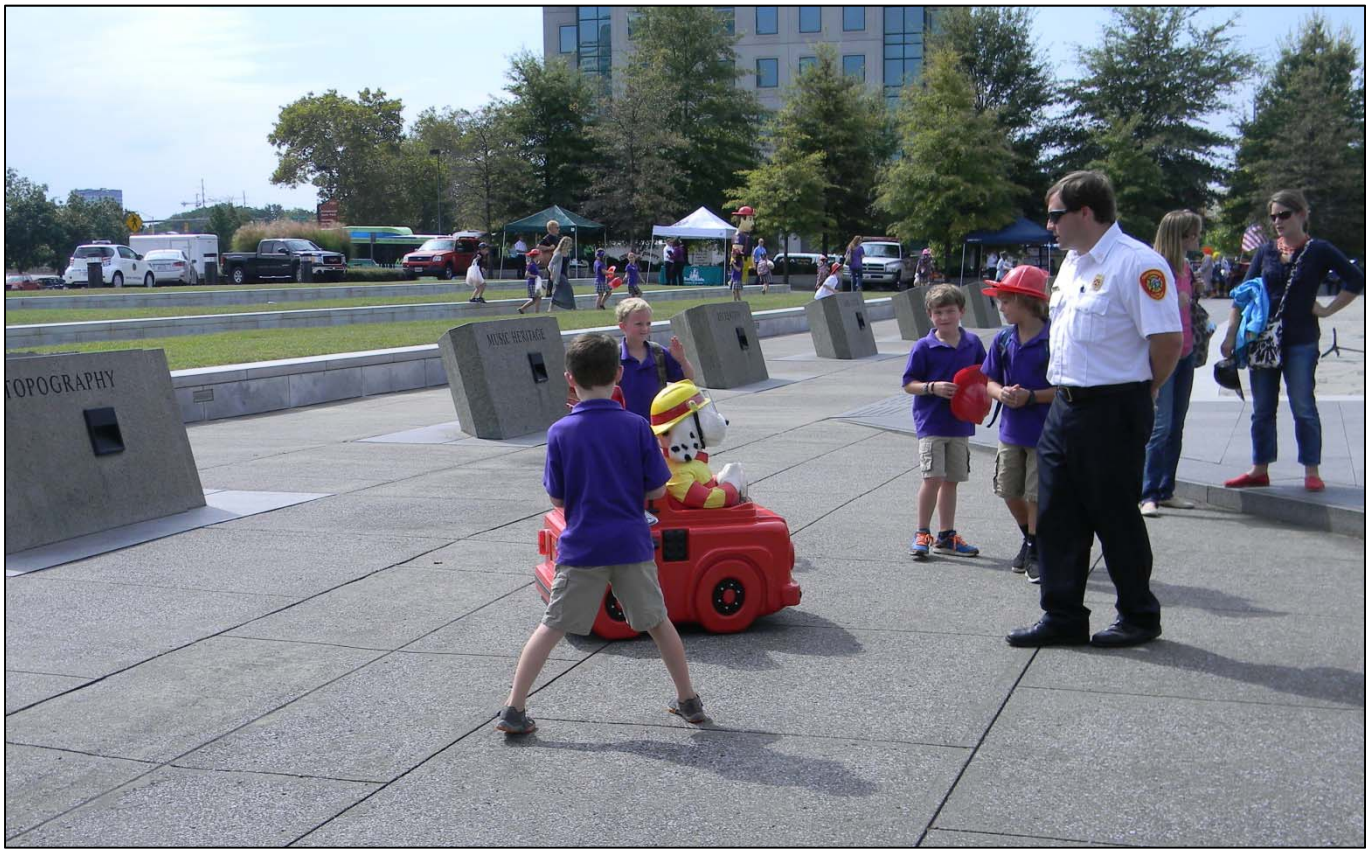
SFMO's Bomb & Arson Dog Smokey made a welcomed appearance

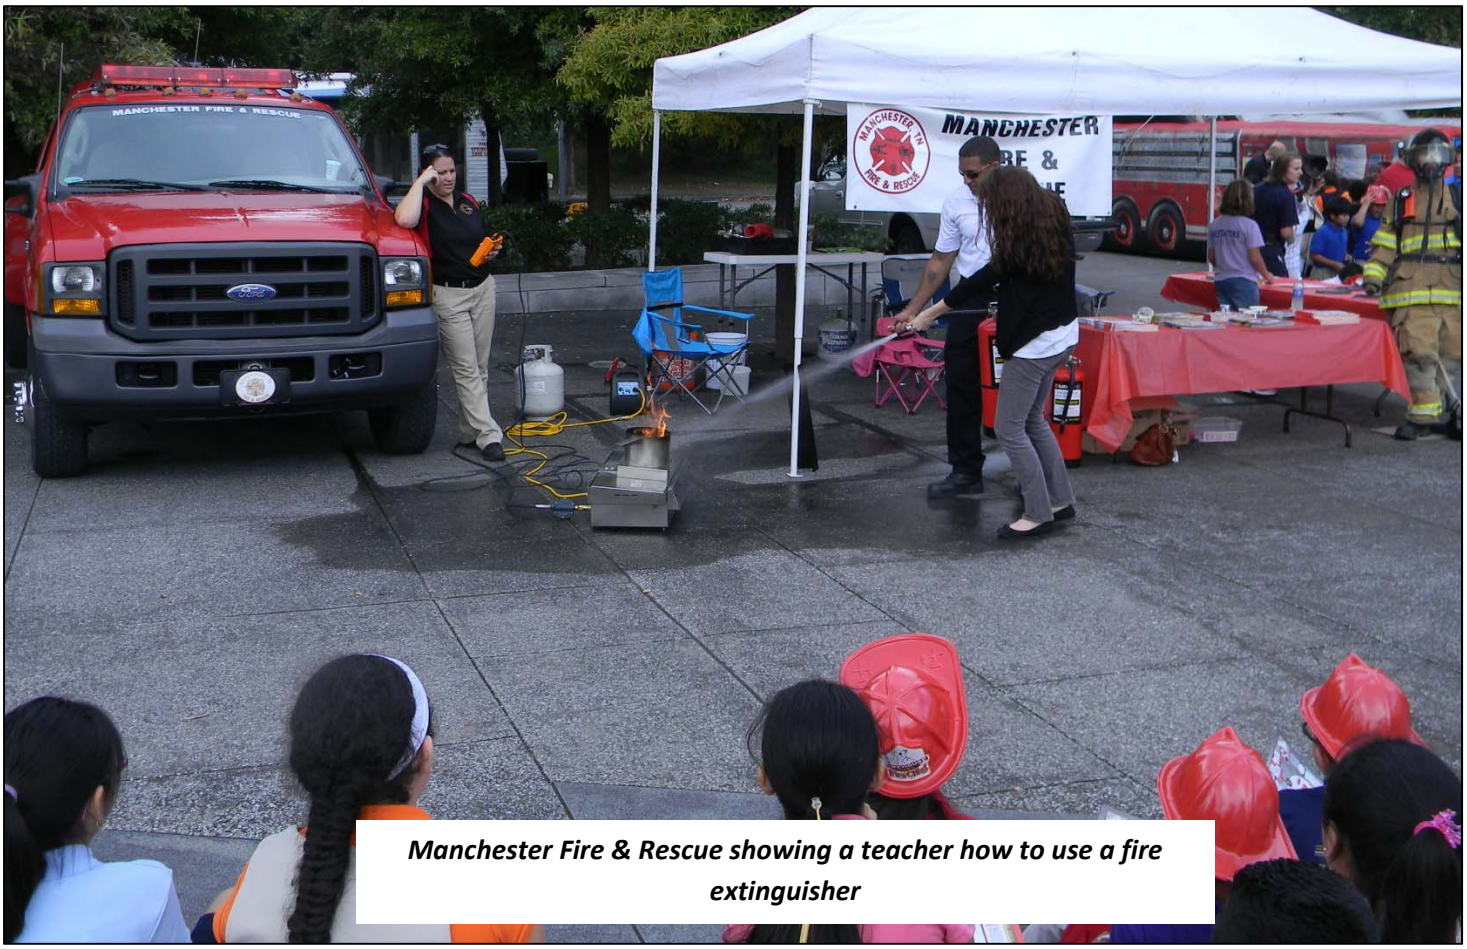
SKETCH (aka Mike Cooper) was a hit with the kids

Alcoa Fire Department and their #1 firefighter, "Larry"

Ashland City Fire Department made sure everyone was behaving, including the clowns.

Chattanooga Fire Department with two great teaching tools





Manchester Fire & Rescue showing a teacher how to use a fire extinguisher

Knox Co. Fire Prevention Bureau/Rural Metro Fire Department uses a stove top demonstrator to show the best way to handle a pan fire

Oak Ridge Fire Department teaching home fire escape the hands-on way

A crowd gathers to see a fire sprinkler demonstration by the Pleasant View Vol. Fire Department