East Tennessee Radiation Therapy Services
CN1108-030AD
Docket No. 25.00-115208J

Covenant Health has appealed the Approval of a CON for the acquisition of a Linear Accelerator; the initiation of outpatient radiation therapy services; and the establishment of an ambulatory surgical treatment center limited to radiation therapy services in Knox County.

The contested case was heard January 14 – 18 and 24 – 25, 2013. The Administrative Judge entered an Initial Order Denying the CON application on 5/30/13. After receipt of written arguments from ETRTS and Covenant Health and oral arguments at the HSDA's November 2013 meeting, the HSDA issued a Final Order Approving the CON application.

Covenant Health appealed the Final Order to the Davidson County Chancery Court, which overturned the HSDA's Final Order Approving the CON application. The Davidson County Chancery Court has stayed the effect of its Order, pending resolution of ETRTS' appeal; this means ETRTS may continue operation pending resolution. Oral arguments were held before the Tennessee Court of Appeals on October 13, 2015.

W. Brantley Phillips, Jr., Esq. and Russell S. Baldwin, Esq. of Bass, Berry & Sims represent East Tennessee Radiation Therapy Services

Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC d/b/a Trex Treatment Center
CON #1303-005D
Docket No.: 25.00-122076J

Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC d/b/a Trex Treatment Center has appealed the Denial of its application for the establishment of a nonresidential substitution-based treatment center for opiate addiction in Johnson City.*

A hearing date had not been set in the contested case due to Petitioner's urging, over HSDA counsel's opposition; in March 2014, HSDA counsel's Motion to Set was granted over Petitioner's objection, and a hearing date had been set for 7/29/2014 through 8/1/2014. The ALJ revoked James A. Dunlap, Jr.'s special permission to appear in this TN proceeding due to conduct not detailed here, and Petitioner appealed said revocation to the Davidson County Chancery Court. Jim Higgins, Esq. became counsel of record.

The trial has been continued several times, pending resolution of Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC and James A. Dunlap, Jr.'s appeal of the revocation of James A. Dunlap, Jr.'s special permission to appear in this TN proceeding. The Davidson County Chancery Court issued an Order upholding the revocation on December 12, 2014, which Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC and James A. Dunlap, Jr. have appealed to the Tennessee Court of Appeals. Oral arguments were heard on September 18, 2015.

* Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC d/b/a Trex Treatment Center has also filed an action in Federal Court against the Health Services and Development Agency, alleging the denial of its application constitutes violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act. Johnson City is a co-defendant. In April 2014, the Federal Court dismissed the RA claim and stayed the hearing of the ADA claim(s) until the administrative appeal is resolved. TCH has appealed that decision. Petitioner has filed an appeal with the 6th Circuit.

*Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC d/b/a Trex Treatment Center has also filed an action in Federal Court against the Tennessee Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, alleging the statutorily mandated report detailing how its application fails to satisfy Tennessee law constitutes violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act.

*Tri-Cities Holdings, LLC d/b/a Trex Treatment Center has also filed an action in Federal Court against the Tennessee Secretary of State, Administrative Procedures Division, and the previous ALJ, alleging violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Rehabilitation Act.
