

Tennessee Conversation on the Future of Workers' Compensation

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN THE DISCUSSION!

The Bureau invites you to join Administrator Abbie Hudgens for an important conversation regarding the future of workers' compensation in Tennessee.

Date: Friday, October 21st

Time: 1:30 pm

Place: Bureau of Workers' Compensation
PEARL Room
220 French Landing Drive
Nashville, Tennessee

POTENTIAL DISCUSSION TOPICS INCLUDE:

- What should be the core objectives of a workers' compensation system?
- What are equitable and adequate benefits?
- What is a reasonable cost to employers for a workers' compensation system?
- How broad should coverage be for employees?
- How can Tennessee make the workers' compensation system simpler?
- Should states agree on the objectives of workers' compensation?
- What opportunities exist for more uniformity among states' systems?

Registration is limited to the first 96 respondents.

Reserve your space in advance by calling Andrea Draper at (615) 532-1228 or by emailing her at andrea.draper@tn.gov.