The Tennessee Outdoors Youth Summit will be held June 12-17, 2016. Your child will stay at a hotel in Clarksville, Tennessee, and will be bused out to a TWRA facility each day, starting Monday.

After being chosen for the summit, your child will receive a letter by e-mail or mail and directed to an internet site where you must fill out and submit a class schedule. Total payment or scholarship agreement must be completed at this time. Schedules will not be accepted until payment is fulfilled. The total cost per child is $300 (includes lodging, meals, daily travel, t-shirt, educational materials, and various gifts). Applicants requesting a roommate must write the roommate's name on the line provided in this application. We cannot make special roommate provisions at the last minute.

When you arrive with your child on Sunday night, you will be required to attend a rules and regulations meeting that will outline conduct for the week. Poor conduct may result in your child being dismissed from the program and will result in forfeiture of the registration fee.

Full or partial scholarships are available to youth in 41 Middle Tennessee counties through the TWRF. These scholarships are need- and socioeconomic-based and will require a discussion with TWRF staff. We are happy to provide assistance to your child but we must ensure that the money is provided only to those that truly need it. If you would like to request a full or partial scholarship, please indicate your interest on page 1 and someone will be in touch with you. You will still be required to pay a minimum of $50 for your TOYS fee.

Friday night, the summit ends and your child will be attending the awards banquet. This event is casual and fun for everyone. Parents are encouraged to attend the banquet but will need to pay for the cost of the meal. If you choose to attend and stay the night in Clarksville, there will be a phone number given along with the cost of the room and banquet meal in the confirmation e-mail or letter. Parents may also pick up their child Saturday morning (no later than 10 a.m.) if they choose.
