

Advocating since 1963 for all Tennesseans to age with dignity

TN Care through Conversation

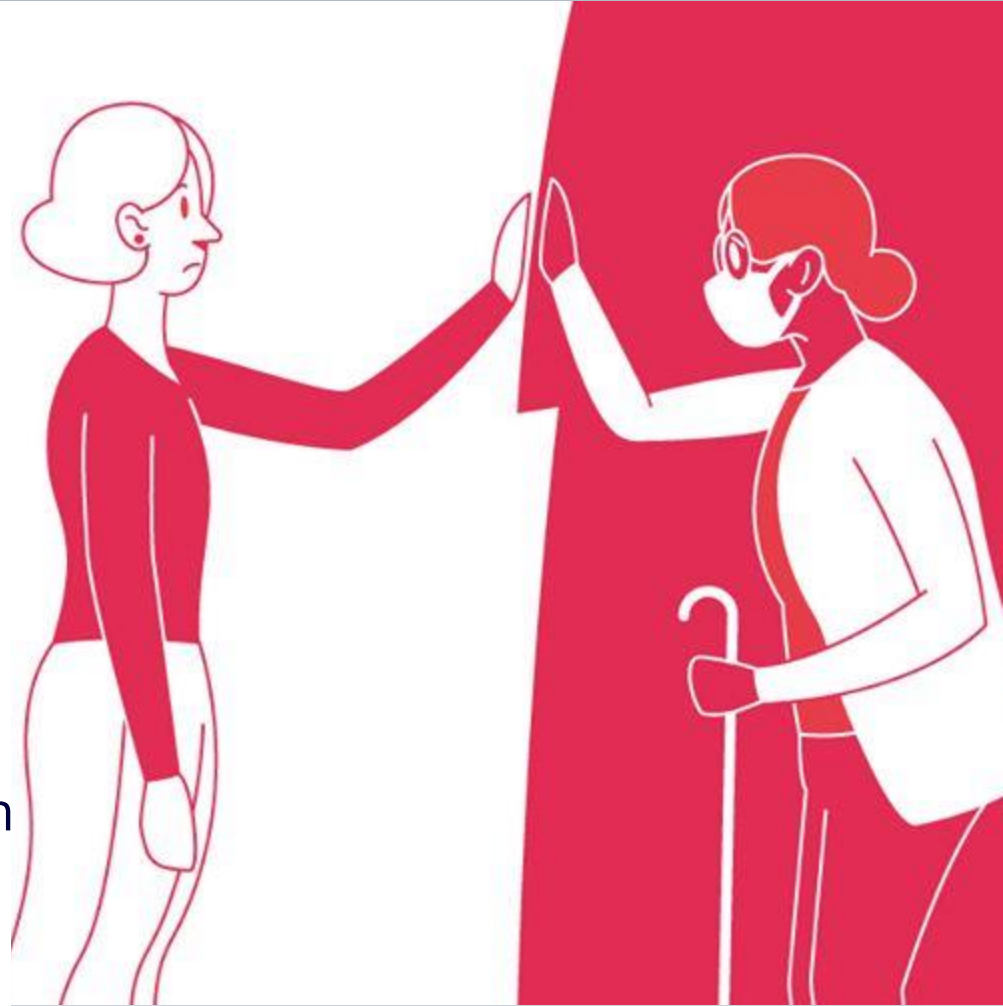

- ☞ Telephone reassurance for ALL older adults and caregivers in Tennessee
- ☞ Aimed at reducing social isolation and loneliness in older adults
- ☞ Participants receive a check-in call at least once a week from a volunteer to talk and do a quick needs assessment

Tennessee
Care through Conversation

TN Care through Conversation

- ☞ Almost 100 individuals signed up, older adults we are reaching include:
- Older adult living alone with dementia
 - Older adult who provided art lessons to schools and is now unable to do so
 - Recent retiree who has lost work support system
 - Spanish-speaking older adult in assisted living matched with Spanish volunteer

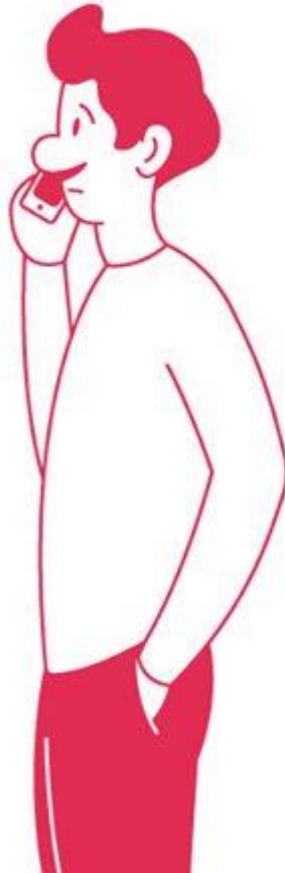

TN Care through Conversation

- ✎ Shared with ADvancing States
- ✎ Contacted by Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi and Ohio
- ✎ Highlighted on number of local news programs (NPT Aging Matters, WKRN - Nashville , WBBJ - Jackson, WATE – Memphis, Nashville Scene)

TN Care through Conversation

Released
Community
Companion Guide which has been shared in the Pastor Resource Book and sent through the Governor's Office of Faith Based and Community
Initiatives

Tennessee Commission on Aging and Disability
Andrew Jackson Building, 9th Floor
502 Deaderick St., Nashville, TN 37243

Sarah Elliott, Tennessee Dementia Services Coordinator
Phone: 615.532.7070
Email: Sarah.Elliott@tn.gov

www.tn.gov/aging
<https://www.facebook.com/TNAging>