BOP to conduct Board meeting/clemency hearings this month Administrative meeting June 25; Executive clemency hearings June 25-26

NASHVILLE – The Tennessee Board of Parole will conduct an administrative board meeting at 9 a.m. June 25, along with executive clemency hearings June 25-26 at its downtown Nashville central office, located at James Robertson Parkway in the Davy Crockett Tower.

The meeting and clemency hearings are open to the public and will be conducted in the Chairman Richard Montgomery Board Room, located on the fourth floor. The schedule and times are as follows:

Day/Date	Time (CT)	Meeting/Hearing
Wednesday, June 25	9 a.m.	Administrative Board Meeting
	10 a.m.	Executive Clemency Hearings
Thursday, June 26	9:00 a.m.	Executive Clemency Hearings

Individuals interested in addressing the board at the administrative meeting should notify the Board via email at BOP.Webmail@tn.gov to be placed on the agenda by 12 p.m. June 24.

The next administrative meeting is scheduled for September 24, 2025.

The Board of Parole is an independent seven-member board whose members are appointed by the Governor. The Board makes decisions about which eligible offenders will be granted parole and placed on community supervision for the remainder of their sentences. The Board also can revoke parole of those offenders who do not abide by the conditions of their supervision. In addition, the Board reviews applications for executive clemency and makes non-binding recommendations to the Governor.
