Board of Parole September Meeting to be held in Nashville Sept. 20 at 500 James Robertson Parkway, Fourth Floor

NASHVILLE – The Tennessee Board of Parole will hold its last 2023 administrative board meeting at 9 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 20 at 500 James Robertson Parkway in the Davy Crockett Tower, located on the fourth floor in downtown Nashville.

The meeting is open to the public.

Individuals interested in addressing the board should notify the Board via email at BOP.Webmail@tn.gov to be placed on the agenda by 12 p.m. CT, Sept. 19.

The next administrative meeting is scheduled for January 24, 2024.

The Board of Parole is an independent seven-member board whose members are appointed by the Governor. The Board makes decisions about which eligible offenders will be granted parole and placed on community supervision for the remainder of their sentences. The Board also can revoke parole of those offenders who do not abide by the conditions of their supervision. In addition, the Board reviews applications for executive clemency and makes non-binding recommendations to the Governor.
