Approved Course Required for Highlighted Levels

Progression in certification testing is defined as:

The 30-day waiting period is only in effect for those dependent levels of certification that require a prerequisite level of certification prior to testing at the desired level. Example: A test applicant must wait 30 days between Fire Instructor I and Fire Officer I because Fire Instructor I is a prerequisite for Fire Officer I. However, the applicant could test on the same day at different test events for both Airport Firefighter and Fire Officer I if the applicant meets the prerequisite requirements for each level. This is allowed because neither level is dependent on the other.

Policy 16-2

Retest are allowed in 15 days per 0360-04-01-.05

By clicking on the certification levels above it will take you to that level's page.

By clicking on the date at the bottom of each page it will bring you back to this home page.
