The following items are necessary to qualify for registration as an explosives blaster:

1. Submit an application with a check made payable to the Department of Commerce and Insurance for three-hundred fifteen dollars ($315). Fifteen dollars ($15) of which is nonrefundable.

2. The application must be completed in its entirety. A registration will not be issued without a completed application on file.

3. The applicant must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age.

4. The applicant must understand, speak and write the English language.

5. Provide proof of having obtained one (1) year of previous practical experience under the supervision of a registered, experienced blaster by having the blaster fill out and sign a Blaster/Limited Blaster Experience Verification form. Alternately, provide the applicant's blasting license from another state provided it has been possessed for at least one year prior to application in this state.

6. Submit a copy of the applicant's Tennessee handler's registration if applicable.

7. Schedule, take and pass a written examination after the application is reviewed by this office. Each blaster applicant must pass the exam. An applicant who fails an examination may retake the examination thirty (30) days after the original test date without paying another application fee. An applicant who fails the examination twice shall reapply and pay the required application fee.

8. If you are not an employee of a registered blasting firm, an explosives firm application and fee must be submitted with a certificate of liability insurance in the amount of one million dollars ($1,000,000.00). The insurance company must complete and sign the Certificate of Insurance and the words “Includes blasting/explosives” must appear on the certificate. The “State of Tennessee, Department of Commerce and Insurance, Permits and Licenses Unit”, at the above address, must be listed as the certificate holder. This certificate must be forwarded to this office.

Continued…
Requirements for continuing the registration:

Certificates of registration expire three (3) years following the date of issuance or renewal and are invalid on that date unless renewed. You will receive a renewal form by mail prior to expiration. Submit the renewal form with a check for three-hundred dollars ($300) made payable to the Department of Commerce and Insurance. If you don’t receive the renewal form, call (615) 741-1322 for instructions. It is the responsibility of the registrant to notify this office of all address changes to ensure renewal notices are received in a timely manner.

A twenty-five dollar ($25) late fee is assessed for renewing up to one (1) year after expiration. After one (1) year, an initial application must be made and all requirements for initial registration must be met.

A minimum of sixteen (16) hours of State Fire Marshal approved continuing education must be completed. Proof of completion of the course must be received prior to the expiration date.

ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION FOR ENTITLEMENTS ACT ATTESTATION
(Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-58-103)

The Eligibility Verification for Entitlements Act, passed in 2012, requires every state governmental entity to verify that each applicant who applies for a state public benefit is a United States citizen or lawfully present in the United States. As such, all individuals applying for a license, registration, certification, or other benefit from the Department of Commerce and Insurance, Division of Fire Prevention ("Division") must complete this form. In addition, all owners of "pass-through entities" (such as sole proprietorships, partnerships, limited liability companies ("LLCs"), and S corporations) must complete the form. If you have questions as to whether you are required to complete this form, please contact the Division’s Permits and Licensing Section at (615) 741-2981 or SFMO.permits-licensing@tn.gov.

I hereby attest under penalty of perjury that I am (select one):

☐ A United States citizen, and my social security number is _______ - _______ - _______.

☐ A qualified alien as defined in Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-58-102\(^1\) and I am providing one (1) or more forms of documentation of identity and immigration status listed on the following page.

☐ A foreign national not physically present in the United States. (Further, I understand that should I ever become physically present in the United States while I hold this license, registration, or other benefit, I agree to immediately contact the issuing agency and provide documentation to confirm my status as a qualified alien.)

I further attest that I understand that submitting false information or omitting pertinent or material information in connection with this application or any violation of the Eligibility Verification for Entitlements Act may result in the revocation of any license, registration, certification, or other benefit issued to the applicant. A person who willingly makes a false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation of United States citizenship may be prosecuted under 18 U.S.C. § 911 and/or the False Claims Act, Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 4-18-101, et seq.

\(^1\) Qualified alien means "a qualified alien as defined by 8 U.S.C. § 1641(b)" or “an alien or nonimmigrant eligible to receive state or local public benefits under 8 U.S.C. § 1621(a).” Pursuant to those statutes, this status includes, but is not necessarily limited to:

- An alien who is lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1101 et seq.];
- An alien who is granted asylum under Section 208 of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1158];
- A refugee who is admitted to the United States under Section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1157];
- An alien who is paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)] for a period of at least one (1) year;
- An alien whose deportation is being withheld under Section 243(h) of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1253] (as in effect immediately before the effective date of Section 307 of Division C of Public Law 104-208 or Section 241(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1231(b)(3)] as amended by Section 305(a) of Division C of Public Law 104-208);
- An alien who is granted conditional entry pursuant to Section 203(a)(7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1153(a)(7)] as in effect prior to April 1, 1980;
- An alien who is a Cuban and Haitian entrant (as defined in Section 501(e) of the Refugee Assistance Act of 1980);
- An alien who is paroled into the United States under Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act [8 U.S.C. § 1182(d)(5)] for less than one year.
Additional Required Documentation:

If you are claiming United States citizenship, you must present one (1) of the following:

- Social security number (if you provided your social security number on the previous page, no additional documentation is required. However, please be aware that efforts may be made to verify any such number);
- A valid Tennessee driver’s license or photo identification issued by the Department of Safety;
- A valid driver’s license or photo identification license from another state where the issuance requirements are at least as strict as those in Tennessee, as determined by the Department of Safety;
- An official birth certificate issued by a state, jurisdiction, or territory of the United States, including Puerto Rico, United States Virgin Island, Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Swains Island, or Guam (except that Puerto Rican birth certificates issued before July 1, 2010, shall not be recognized);
- A United States government-issued certified birth certificate;
- A valid, unexpired United States passport;
- A United States certificate of birth abroad (DS-1350 or FS-545);
- A report of birth abroad of a citizen of the United States (FS-240);
- A certificate of citizenship (N560 or N561);
- A certificate of naturalization (N5550, N570, or N578);
- A United States citizen identification card (I-197, I-179); or

If you are claiming qualified alien status, you must present two (2) of the following forms of documentation of identity and immigration status, as determined by the United States Department of Homeland Security to be acceptable for verification through the SAVE program:

- I-327 (Reentry permit);
- I-551 (Permanent Resident Card);
- I-571 (Refugee Travel Document);
- I-766 (Employment Authorization Card);
- Certificate of Citizenship;
- Naturalization Certificate;
- Machine Readable Immigrant Visa (with Temporary I-551 Language);
- Temporary I-551 Stamp (on passport or I-94);
- Unexpired foreign passport;
- WT/WB Admission Stamp in unexpired foreign passport;
- I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student Status);
- DS-2019 (Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) Status); or

Note: Neither a driver’s license nor a social security number or card are acceptable forms of documentation.

If you are claiming qualified alien status but are unable to present two (2) forms of documentation listed above (for the claim of qualified alien status), then you shall present at least one (1) such document, which shall then be verified through the SAVE program. Failure to provide two (2) forms of documentation will result in a delay to determining eligibility for licensure.

If you are claiming that you are a foreign national not physically present in the United States, please contact the program issuing the license, registration, certification, or other benefit for which you are applying to provide such documentation as may be required to verify such status.
