You are further notified that under the authority of Tennessee Code Annotated Section 36-5-706 your insurance producer license is indefinitely suspended effective immediately.

Your insurance producer license is being suspended based upon certification to the Insurance Division by the Department of Human Services that you in arrears on your child support order for ninety (90) days or more, and you have failed to pay the child support arrearage in full or agree to a plan to repay the arrearage with the Department of Human Services as directed in the Notice of License Revocation provided to you by certified mail.

To Restore-Reinstate Your License

To have your insurance producer license restored or reinstated you must comply with the order of child support by:

1) Paying In Full.

You may pay your back child support in full by immediately contacting the Child Support Office shown on the Notice of License Revocation which you recently received by certified mail; or

2) Agreeing To Repayment Based Upon Agreed Order Signed By the Court.

If you are not able to pay the full amount of the back child support that you owe, you should, as soon as possible, contact the Child Support Office shown on the Notice of License Revocation, which you recently received by certified mail, make a plan to pay a portion of your back child support now and pay the remainder over a reasonable period of time. This plan will be submitted to the Court for its approval as an Agreed Order.

After Making Arrangements With the Department

Upon making a satisfactory arrangement with the Department of Human Services Child Support Office to pay the child support you owe in full or to pay it over a reasonable period of time after the Court signs an order for you to do so, the Department of Human Services will issue a "RELEASE" to the Insurance Division stating that you have complied with the order of support. Upon receipt of the "RELEASE" the Insurance Division will lift the suspension of your license, provided that you have met ALL other applicable licensing requirements.

If this agency receives a "RELEASE" from the Department of Human Services, you will NOT be required to be re-tested or re-certified for your insurance producer license if it was: 1) valid and held in good standing immediately prior to suspension and 2) you were in compliance with all renewal requirements triggered during the period of suspension, including but not limited to the payment of fees and the submission of continuing education credits if applicable.
