hereinafter and generally referred to as the Company, and a report thereon is submitted as follows:

INTRODUCTION

This examination was called by the Commissioner of Commerce and Insurance of the State of Tennessee and commenced on April 7, 2005. The examination was the "Organizational Examination" and was conducted by a duly authorized representative of "The Department of Commerce and Insurance", State of Tennessee.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Upon payment by the Company of the application fee of $675 prescribed in Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-4-101, this examination was conducted as of March 14, 2005 to determine if the Company has complied with the statutory and regulatory requirements to be issued a Certificate of Authority to establish and operate a property and casualty insurance company according to the provisions of Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-2, Part 1.

COMPANY HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Company was incorporated on October 7, 2004 under the Tennessee Business Corporation Act as a for-profit corporation authorized to transact business in the State of Tennessee. The Charter and Bylaws are discussed in detail in this report under the caption "CHARTER AND BYLAWS".

On October 21, 2004, the Incorporator acted by "Written Consent" to approve the following actions:

- Adopt and accept the Charter of the Corporation.
- Adopt the bylaws prepared for the Corporation by counsel.
- Direct that hereafter the Board of Directors of the Corporation be composed of two (2) people and elect the following directors to fill the vacancy created by the foregoing action and resignation of the Incorporator:

Donald Eugene Capps
Donovan H. Gravlee

On October 21, 2004 following the above actions of the Incorporator, the Board of Directors acted by Written Consent to approve the following actions:

- All acts taken on behalf of the Company by T. Stephen C. Taylor, as Sole Incorporator, are hereby ratified and affirmed.
- Election of officers as follows:

Donald Eugene Capps	President
Donovan H. Gravlee	Secretary
- The Company shall transact banking at such banks as the President and Secretary may from time to time determine. President, Secretary and other officers designated by the Board are also empowered to execute and deliver the customary form of corporate banking resolutions.
- The fiscal year of the Company shall end on the 31st day of December in each year.
- The Company is authorized to issue 500,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, $1.00 par value to each of Donald E. Capps and Donovan H. Gravlee for valid consideration received.

- The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company shall be held in accordance with the Bylaws.
- Proper Officers are authorized and empowered to pay all fees and expenses incident to or arising from the organization of the Company, and reimburse any person who has made reasonable disbursements therefore.
- Proper Officers are authorized to take all such further action, and to execute and deliver all such further instruments and documents in the name and on behalf of the Company and to pay all such fees and expenses, which shall in their judgment be necessary, proper or advisable.
- Consent may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and together constitute one and the same consent.

CHARTER AND BYLAWS

Charter:

The Charter of the Company was filed and recorded with the Tennessee Secretary of State on October 7, 2004 after having been approved by "The Department of Commerce and Insurance", State of Tennessee on September 28, 2004. Said Charter establishes and sets forth the following:

1. The name of the corporation is Sheffield Insurance Company.
2. The corporation is for profit.
3. The purpose of the corporation is to engage in the business of insurance as a principal, including but not limited to property or casualty insurance, and to engage in any other lawful business under the laws of the State of Tennessee.
4. The street address of the corporation's principal office is:

214 Centerview Drive
Suite 259

7. The shareholders of the corporation shall not have preemptive rights.

Bylaws:

The Bylaws of the Company in effect at March 14, 2005 were adopted by the written consent of the Board on October 21, 2004 at the meeting of the Incorporators and have not been amended or changed during the period covered by this examination. The bylaws are such as those generally found in corporations of this type and contain no unusual provisions.

An annual meeting of the shareholders of the Company shall be held at such time and place, either within or without this State, as may be designated from time to time by the directors. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the Board of Directors or by the holders of at least ten percent (10%) of the stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at such meeting. The place of such annual and special meetings shall be designated by the directors. If no place is fixed by the Board, the meeting shall be held at the principal office of the Corporation. A majority of shares entitled to vote on a matter by a voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of a board of directors. The number of directors shall be not less than two members. The board may hold regular or special meetings either within or without the State of Tennessee. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum.

The officers for the corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board, a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and such other officers as the board of directors shall from time to time deem necessary. One person may simultaneously hold more than one office except the President may not simultaneously hold the office of Secretary.

MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL

Management:

The Bylaws provide that all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of and the business and affairs of the Corporation managed under the direction of the Board of Directors consisting of no fewer than two (2) members. Donald Eugene Capps	President/CEO
Donovan H. Gravlee	Secretary/Treasurer

Control:

The Company is 50% owned by Donald Eugene Capps and 50% owned by Donovan H. Gravlee.

A holding company organizational chart is included at the last page of this examination report.

PROPOSED PLAN OF OPERATION

The Company's plan of operation states that it intends to write Workers' Compensation Insurance. The target market is for the small account risks in the State of Tennessee.

The Company will contract its underwriting and administration functions to be performed by Sheffield Group, Inc. and its claims handling and loss control operations functions to be performed by Sheffield Risk Management Services L.L.C. Both of these contractors are Alabama corporations owned by the same principals which control the Company. The contractors have experience in administrating the type of business which the Company plans to target.

Sheffield Group, Inc. has been a General Agent/Program Administrator in Tennessee since 1997. The Group has been marketing the same type of coverage referenced above through fronting arrangements with other companies since it began business in Tennessee.

Sheffield Risk Management Services L.L.C. is licensed in Tennessee as a Third Party Administrator.

Solicitation of business will be through independent agents. The Tennessee Association of Professional Insurance Agents (PIA) has supported Sheffield programs since 1997. Sheffield Group, Inc. has already appointed numerous agents in Tennessee.

The Company intends to retain the first $500,000 of ultimate net loss on all Workers Compensation policies. It additionally intends to retain the first $500,000 on all Employers' Liability policies. The Company will in effect purchase specific excess insurance for claims cost excess of $500,000 per claim retention. Arrangements for the reinsurance program have been discussed with the insurance company for which Sheffield Group, Inc. has fronted business in Tennessee and with the fronted company's reinsurer.

The Company estimates written premium of approximately $6,000,000 in year one.

STATUTORY DEPOSIT

In compliance with statutory requirements, the Company maintained the following deposits at March 14, 2005:

Where Deposited and Description	Par Value	Statement Value	Market Value

CONCLUSION

I have verified the foregoing financial statement as included in this examination report. In conjunction, I have inspected the following documents and records of the Company: Charter of Incorporation, Bylaws, minutes of the Board of Directors meetings, the issued and outstanding certificates of Common Stock of the Company, biographical sketches of all directors and officers and the plan of operation.

It appears that the Company has fulfilled all necessary requirements to receive a Certificate of Authority to establish and operate a property and casualty company in the State of Tennessee. Therefore, I recommend that Sheffield Insurance Company be issued a Certificate of Authority pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 56-2, to establish and operate such property and casualty company in Tennessee.

Respectfully submitted,
