Courses and instructors which have been properly and timely submitted to the Commission and reviewed by the Education Director are presented in a table format to the Commission for discussion and determination whether the course should be approved for Tennessee real estate licensees and/or applicants and whether an instructor should be approved to teach a specified course.

E&O Update: TCA 62-13-112 and Rule 1260-01-.16 require licensees to obtain, maintain and renew Errors and Omissions Insurance and to provide proof to the Commission. A license is placed in a suspended status if such proof is not submitted timely to the Commission. The Executive Director presents an update on the number of licensees in suspension and insured.

Complaint Report: Executive Director presents statistics for the current fiscal year regarding the number of complaints closed, opened, sent to litigation, the types of consent orders authorized by the Commission, the dollar amounts authorized, breakdown of monies received for the preceding month and the current fiscal year, the number of complaints involving property management and the Disciplinary Action Report.
