Code Ann. § 48-1-101 to 48-1-201, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance (“Commissioner”).

PARTIES

1. Miller Wealth is an investment adviser firm with its principal place of business located in Mount Juliet, Tennessee. It is assigned Central Registration Depository (“CRD”) Number 330286 with the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”).

2. Dustin Miller, Owner and Chief Compliance Officer of Miller Wealth, is responsible for Miller Wealth's compliance with the Act and is assigned CRD number 6141750 with FINRA.

3. The Division is the lawful agent through which the Commissioner discharges the administration of the Act pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 48-1-115.

GENERAL STIPULATIONS

4. It is expressly understood that this Consent Order is subject to the Commissioner's acceptance and has no force and effect until such acceptance is evidenced by the entry and execution of the Commissioner.

5. It is expressly understood that this Consent Order is in the public interest, necessary for the protection of investors, and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

6. This Consent Order is executed by the Commissioner, the Division, and the Respondents to avoid further administrative action with respect to this cause. Should this Consent Order not be accepted by the Commissioner, it is agreed that presentation to and consideration of this Consent Order by the Commissioner shall not unfairly or illegally prejudice the Commissioner from further participation or resolution of these proceedings.

7. The Respondents fully understand that this Consent Order will in no way preclude additional proceedings by the Commissioner against the Respondent for acts and/or omissions not specifically addressed in this Consent Order nor for facts and/or omissions that do not arise from the facts or transactions herein.

8. The Respondents fully understand that this Consent Order will in no way preclude proceedings by state government representatives, other than the Commissioner, for acts or omissions addressed specifically in this Consent Order, violations of law under statutes, rules, or regulations of the State of Tennessee that arise out of the facts, acts, or omissions contained in this Consent Order, or acts or omissions addressed specifically herein that result from the execution of this Consent Order.

9. The Respondents waive all further procedural steps and waive all rights to seek judicial review of, or otherwise challenge the validity of this Consent Order, the stipulations and imposition of discipline contained herein, or the consideration and entry and execution of this Consent Order by the Commissioner.

10. This Consent Order is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, the Commissioner will not bring any future actions against the Respondents alleging violations based on the same factual findings described herein.

FINDINGS OF FACT

11. On or about January 8, 2025, the Division opened a routine post-registration cyclical examination of Miller Wealth, a firm registered with the Division since March 27, 2024, with no previous examinations.

12. During the examination, the Division found that the firm did not initially provide monthly net capital computations. Monthly balance sheets were submitted on March 3, 2025, in response to a follow-up request.

13. During the Exam, the Division found that Miller Wealth failed to maintain minimum net capital requirements of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) for each of the twelve (12) months it had been registered with the Division at the time of the examination.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

14. Pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 48-1-115(a), the responsibility for the administration of the Act is vested in the Commissioner. The Division is the lawful agent through which the Commissioner discharges this responsibility pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 48-1-115(b).

15. Tenn. Code Ann. § 48-1-116 provides that the Commissioner may make, promulgate, amend, and rescind such orders as are necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act upon a finding that such order is in the public interest, necessary for the protection of investors, and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act.

16. Tenn. Code Ann. § 48-1-112 provides, in part, that:

- (a) The commissioner may by order deny, suspend, or revoke any registration under this part if the commissioner finds that:
 - (1) The order is in the public interest and necessary for the protection of investors; and
 - (2) The applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any affiliate, partner, officer, director, or any person occupying a similar status or performing similar functions:
 - (B) Has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of this part or a predecessor chapter or any rule or order under this part or a predecessor chapter, including, without limitation, any net capital requirements;
...
- (d) In any case in which the commissioner is authorized to deny, revoke, or suspend the registration of a broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, investment adviser representative, or applicant for broker-dealer, agent, investment adviser, or investment adviser representative registration, the commissioner may, in lieu of or in addition to such disciplinary action, impose a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) for all violations for any single transaction, or in an amount not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation if an individual who is a designated adult is a victim.

17. Tenn Comp. R. & Regs. 0780-04-03-.01(6) provides, in part, that:

- (a) Except as provided under subparagraph (6)(d) of this Rule, every investment adviser registered or to be registered shall have and maintain a minimum net capital of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000).

18. The Findings of Fact detailed above show that Respondents failed to maintain minimum net capital for twelve months in violation of Tenn. Comp. R. & Regs. 0780-04-03-.01(6)(a).

19. Respondents' violations constitute grounds for the assessment of civil penalties pursuant Tenn. Code Ann. § 48-1-112.

20. The Commissioner finds the following relief appropriate, in the public interest, and necessary for the protection of investors.

6. The Respondents' failure to comply with the terms of this Consent Order, including the manner and method of payment of the civil penalty described above, shall result in further administrative disciplinary actions, which may include the assessment of additional civil penalties.
