Proverbs 3:5-6

Updates

Tom Hallquist provided insights from his recent visit to the Florida Department of Corrections, discussing key observations and potential applications for Tennessee.

Mario Allan suggested that the board participate in the classes offered by the Tennessee Department of Corrections (TDOC) to better understand available resources. He also proposed organizing a Board Retreat for further development. The Chairman asked Mario to draft a proposal for the retreat to be presented at the next meeting.

Appeals Review

The board reviewed the volunteer appeal of Stacy Hayes. It was agreed that appeals should be presented in person. The Chairman will invite Mr. Hayes to the next meeting.

Committee Updates

The Returned Citizens Committee is planning visits to prisons over the coming year.

Regional Reports

Regional reports were given by each region. We continue to have challenges with programs being permitted. The challenge is the long delay process for approval from downtown.

New Initiatives

The board discussed establishing a Facebook page alongside a website. Cory agreed to explore the possibility of building a website for the board.

Executive Committee Formation

The Chairman proposed creating an Executive Committee composed of the officers and two additional members to enhance board operations.

Announcements

The Chairman announced that board elections will take place in December.
