We are just a few days away from the 41st anniversary of National Crime Victims’ Rights Week (NCVRW), April 24–29, 2022. This week is a time to renew our commitment to serving all victims of crime, to acknowledge the achievements in victim services and allied professions, to honor those who have gone above and beyond in their service to others, and to remember crime victims and survivors. This year’s theme—Rights, access, equity, for all victims—underscores the importance of helping crime survivors find their justice by—enforcing victims' rights, expanding access to services, and ensuring equity and inclusion for all.

The Tennessee Board of Parole (TBOP), Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI), Tennessee Department of Correction (TDOC), and the Tennessee Rehabilitative Initiative in Correction (TRICOR) will have three (3) special ceremonies commencing Monday April 25th in Nashville, Wednesday April 27th in Chattanooga, and Friday April 29th in Memphis. We hope you will join us at a ceremony near you.

Stay Safe!

April is Sexual Assault Awareness Month and Child Abuse Prevention Month

Every April, the National Sexual Violence Resource Center (NSVRC), one of the many leading organizations on NO MORE’s steering committee, coordinates the national Sexual Assault Awareness Month (SAAM) campaign for the month of April to educate and engage the public in addressing this widespread issue.

This year’s SAAM theme is Building Safe Online Spaces Together, because sexual harassment, assault, and abuse can happen anywhere, including online. As we connect online, we can learn how to practice digital consent, intervene when we see harmful content or behaviors, and ensure that online spaces — whether they be workspaces, classrooms, social media platforms, or otherwise — are respectful and safe.

Sexual harassment, assault, and abuse can happen anywhere, including in online spaces. For too long harassment, cyberbullying, and sexual abuse and exploitation have come to be expected as typical and unavoidable behaviors online. Building Safe Online Spaces Together is possible when we practice digital consent, intervene when we see harmful content and behaviors, and promote online communities that value respect, inclusion, and safety.

Help is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week Call 800.656.HOPE (4673) to be connected with a trained staff member from a sexual assault service provider in your area.

Child Abuse Prevention Month

Every year, Child Abuse Awareness Month is observed in April to recognize the efforts made by our communities and families in bringing up this issue in front of the world. Did you know that every one out of seven children in the U.S has experienced physical and sexual abuse? During this month, as well as the whole year, citizens are encouraged to raise the issue of child abuse and the well-being of children and families around the country.

Evidence shows that children’s early experiences impact them throughout life—positively and negatively. Kids raised in safe, stable, and nurturing relationships and environments are more likely to enjoy good physical and mental health and succeed academically and socially. Children who grow up happy and healthy also go on to contribute to economic prosperity for everyone. Child abuse and neglect prevention is possible.

Everyone has a role to play in helping the families in our communities be resilient and access support. By providing all families with equal opportunity and access to the supports they need, we can help improve the safety and well-being of children and youth across the country. The Tennessee Treasury Department will offer free training to advocates, covering the benefits and guidelines of the Criminal Injuries Compensation Program.

There is no charge for the workshop. Advocates who attend will learn the application process, the appeal process, and how to complete and appropriately document a claim application. Attendance certificates will be provided for those attending the majority of the workshop.

To receive invitations to upcoming trainings, please contact the Division of Claims and Risk Management at (615) 741-2734.

National Crime Victims' Rights Week

April 2022

Next week is National Crime Victims' Rights Week! This is a time dedicated to celebrating the strength and resilience of victims of crime and thanking the thousands of service providers who have answered the call to serve. Further, we take this time each year to renew our commitment to assisting victims and to look at how we might further improve the ways in which we provide support.

Tennessee's DAs are planning to celebrate statewide! Check out the list below to find an event near you. And if you can't join in person, follow along at #NCVRW2022
