

Juveniles under Tennessee Department of Correction Jurisdiction

July 10, 2025

The Tennessee Department of Correction had jurisdiction over eight juveniles convicted as adult felons in July 2025, making up about 3 in 10,000 incarcerated felons in the state.

Women make up about 10 percent of the overall adult incarcerated felon population, but none of the juveniles under TDOC's jurisdiction currently are female.

Seven of the eight juveniles currently under TDOC jurisdiction are African American (88%), and one is white (12%). Among the full population of incarcerated adult felony offenders, 39 percent are African American and 58 percent are white.

Seven of the eight juveniles under TDOC's jurisdiction currently are 17 years old. One is 15 years old. They were significantly younger when their crimes were committed, however, with one just 13 years old, one 14 years old, and four who were 15. Two are awaiting sentencing information, and their ages at offense are not known.
