

Eugene Malkin

The McWorth Management Company recently held a retirement celebration honoring Mr. Eugene Malkin (pictured below). Eugene was employed at McDonald's in Fulton, Kentucky for 16 years. He began his career with McWorth Management on February 5th, 2001. During his employment, Eugene developed his role within the restaurant to encompass various responsibilities of the business. Eugene was recognized by the management team for his years of outstanding service and was presented with a plaque at a reception held in his honor. In attendance were fellow co-workers and restaurant patrons whom he had come to be friends with over the years. Eugene looks forward to retirement where he will spend his day volunteering and participating in the St. John's Community Services day program. Congratulations, Eugene, on a successful career.

