Joshua Weakley

Joshua Weakley is 31-years-old and is a bright, happy young man who loves life, people, bowling, music and art. He uses marbles to paint fans, jewelry, key chains and picture frames (pictured below). He had been looking for a job for a few years before he realized he could use his talents for employment. Each of his paintings is unique and no two are exactly alike! Joshua's work is currently being sold on Facebook Marketplace.
