

Randy Ray

What does work mean to the people we support? For folks like Randy Ray, it's an opportunity to claim his independence! Randy works at Quik Mart in Shelbyville where he's responsible for the customer experience at the pump. One of Randy's greatest successes has been his ability to increase his independence over time. He has gone from needing full support from a job coach to being able to work completely independently. He communicated his readiness for independence by telling his job coach, "I got this." Randy enjoys working with a great bunch of people who support him in using the time clock when he arrives at work. He also uses a stop watch to help him keep track of time and finish up when his shift is over. In his own words, Randy is "captain of the parking lot" and really loves wearing his uniform every day. And of course, Randy especially loves getting a paycheck!
