

Benz School of Floral Design – Principles of Floral Design

Aligned Program of Study: Horticulture Science

Description

The Benz School of Floral Design Principles of Floral Design Certification validates students have displayed a thorough understanding of the principles, elements, geometry, and basic techniques used in floral design. Besides demonstrated knowledge of the origins and history of floral design and the ability to identify flowers and floral materials, design and create arrangements and understand the elements used in critiquing and appraising floral designs.

Certification Information

Test Owner

The Benz School of Floral Design

Testing Sites/Centers

Certification exams are offered online through iCEV Multimedia.

Preparing to offer the certification

Exam Details

The certification exam is a 100-question, randomized assessment. Exam questions are in the format of multiple-choice, sort order, diagramming, matching, labeling, and other question types meant to evaluate an individual's competency of the industry standards fully. The certification exam should be proctored within a controlled environment.

Materials and Resources:

Additional resources are located at <https://aggie-horticulture.tamu.edu/benz-school/certification-elements-principles-of-design>.

Vendors with Data Sharing MOU with TDOE

Materials, resources, and other information located at www.icevonline.com/industry-certifications/benz-principles-floral-design .
Vendor	Contact Information
iCEV Multimedia, Inc	www.icevonline.com/contact-us (800) 922-9965