Description
The Autodesk Certified Professional (ACP) certification in Autodesk Fusion 360 is designed for professionals and students who want to advance beyond the ACU level. This credential is for those who possess more advanced skills and can solve complex challenges in workflow and design. Certification at the professional level demonstrates a skill set that ensures certified individuals to stand out as they pursue career advancement. An Autodesk Certified User (ACU) certification in Autodesk Fusion 360 demonstrates product development skills using 3D CAD, CAM, and CAE tools to explore design ideas with an integrated concept-to-product toolset.
