

Integrated Leadership Course 2018

Session One: The Role of Complex Text in Literacy Instruction

Various Locations
9 a.m.–4 p.m.

Course Objectives

- I. Understand the vision and urgency for shifting practice to reflect the department's vision for excellent K-12 literacy instruction.
- II. Describe the shifts in instructional practice needed to realize the vision for excellent literacy instruction – specifically the role of complex text.
- III. Develop skills to identify elements of text complexity as well as how a complex text should be used in the classroom.
- IV. Reflect on and refine your school's academic strategy to ensure excellent K-12 literacy instruction for every student.

Agenda

- I. Overview
 - II. Academic Strategy
 - III. Literacy Learning Walk Tool
 - IV. Bridge to Practice
-