

2023 TCAP Retake Data for 3rd Grade ELA

Beginning this summer for the 2022-23 school year, families of 3rd grade students who did not meet proficiency on the English Language Arts (ELA) portion of the spring TCAP assessment have multiple pathways to fourth grade promotion, including a TCAP retake opportunity, free summer camp, and/or tutoring in the upcoming school year. Students eligible to participate in the TCAP retake promotion pathway had either no ELA score from the spring TCAP (meaning they were not present or did not take the TCAP in spring 2023) or scored “below” or “approaching” on the ELA portion of their spring TCAP assessment.

The table below provides a district-level overview of 3rd grade students who chose to participate in the TCAP retake pathway. This table shows both the percentages of students who took the TCAP retake and improved from their spring TCAP score, as well as percentages for students who were able to demonstrate proficiency on the TCAP retake and will be promoted to fourth grade via this pathway. For additional information on state laws outlining academic supports for third grade students and pathways to 4th grade, please visit the Tennessee Department of Education’s website.
