

2019 Non-public School Compliance Report

This Compliance Report is used by the Tennessee Department of Education (TDOE) in the annual process of inspecting, approving, and classifying non-public schools that have requested category I designation. Schools requesting ongoing approval as category I non-public schools must confirm they are in compliance with the standards used for the approval and classification of public schools. If there are any areas of non-compliance, the school must report those areas and provide a plan to come into compliance.

All category I non-public schools must complete and submit this form on or before December 15.
