

Restorative Conferencing
 Tennessee Department of Education
Office of Student Support
In partnership with STARS Nashville

Restorative practices have been proven effective in reducing misbehavior, bullying, violence and crime among students while improving the overall climate for learning in schools.

In Restorative Conferencing, administrators learn how to facilitate restorative conferences. Introduction to Restorative Practices and Using Circles Effectively are prerequisites for Restorative Conferencing.

This training has a registration fee of $30.00 to cover the cost of the book.

Presenters

STARS Nashville staff are certified trainers in restorative practices from the International Institute for Restorative Practices and currently serve as school climate and safety consultants for the department’s Safe and Supportive Schools Demonstration Grant. They also provide training specifically in empowering youth student leaders to become part of the solution to end bullying and harassment in their schools and communities through MOVE2STAND.
