VI. Components Reviewed

Documentation

1. This text included an additional book full of literacy sources to use with students to enhance student mastery.
2. Every chapter contains multiple ways to teach the topic. These include film studies, visual art, living in the past, cooperative class activities, listening activities, etc. This is a resource that will help to differentiate the content to meet all learning needs as well as keep students interested in learning.
3. The teacher resource book will give teachers many different ideas and activities to support the content. Such as the looking back and looking ahead section.
4. Student self tests as well as on line learning section will benefit students and help prepare them for the AP testing.
5. This book effectively aligns with AP standards.
6. This book matches the rigor expected in an AP European History Course.

September Consensus Review

VI. Components Reviewed

Documentation

1. This book met the requirements for the literacy component. The advanced placement classes require high levels of reading and understanding necessary to meet AP requirements.
2. The presentation of this book is weak. The limited use of colorful paintings, primary sources, graphs, etc. makes the book look drab and uninviting to the reader.
3. The online learning center is a plus for teachers and students. It helps to make the book more user friendly.
4. The book did have a test bank and examples of how to properly prepare for the AP exam. This section did model for the students the appropriate ways to answer questions which will help with understanding and successful learning.
5. There are no thought provoking questions like in other AP textbooks.
6. This book effectively aligns with the AP Standards.

III. Program Design

49-6-2202. (b) (3) In recommending textbooks for use in economics or business-oriented courses or programs, the commission should include at least one (1) textbook written, illustrated and exemplified in such a manner as to facilitate comprehension by all students, including those of disadvantaged socioeconomic circumstances and of culturally different backgrounds.

49-6-2202. (b) (4) In recommending textbooks for use in social studies, Tennessee history, American history or any related subject, the commission shall strive to recommend textbooks that accurately and comprehensively portray the full range of diversity and achievement of racial and ethnic minorities as well as the role and importance of religion in history.
