(b) (4) In recommending textbooks for use in social studies, Tennessee history, American history or any related subject, the commission shall strive to recommend textbooks that accurately and comprehensively portray the full range of diversity and achievement of racial and ethnic minorities as well as the role and importance of religion in history.

A. Presentation

Documentation

COMMENTS: The focus is on AP Test Prep with lots of practice questions. The book is divided up into modules, and a majority of the activities are geared to prepare students for the AP Exam. 1. Content is accurate.

Documentation

COMMENTS: The design of this text is not as visually appealing as others. The content of this text is at a higher level of learning. It has all components needed to qualify as a quality textbook. It just isn't as flashy as others, and that is okay. The strength of this textbook is its focus on preparation for the AP Economics Exam and the high number of practice questions it offers.

CONCERNS: No comment.

Note: Social, ethnic, racial, religious, and gender bias is best determined at the local level where educators have in-depth knowledge of the culture and values of the community in which students live. Although social, ethnic, racial, religious, and gender bias is a local discussion, list any areas of concern for local review teams.

3. The program includes appropriate teacher support.

Documentation

COMMENTS: This program offers excellent support for AP Economics Teachers. There is an Instructor's Manual with a Solutions Manual that advises the teacher through each step of a lesson. It includes Learning Objectives, a Chapter Outline, Figures with Explanations, and even a suggestion for a movie clip to illustrate an economic concept. There is a Teacher's Resource CD that offers numerous online resources that can be used to create power points and tests.

CONCERNS: Most of the power points include figures from the chapters. There was no new information presented in the power points.
