

Complying with Air Quality Regulations

August 20, 2025

Gatlinburg, TN

8:30	Registration, Coffee, and Networking
9:00	Welcome and Introductions	Lacey Hardin, Environmental Consultant Permitting and Regulatory Development
9:15	TN Air Quality Update	Jimmy Johnston, Deputy Director, Permitting and Regulatory Development
9:50	General Permitting Information	Lacey Hardin
10:30	Break
10:40	Construction Permits including fee changes	Julie Verissimo, Env. Consultant, Surface Coating and Combustion Permitting Section; and Lacey Hardin
11:30	NSPS and NESHAP Updates	Jimmy Johnston and Jerry Swinea, Env. Consultant, Metal, Paper, and Wood Permitting Section
12:00	Lunch (Included)

Choose breakout session, Title V or non-Title V

Title V		Non-Title V (True Minor and Conditional Major)
1:00 PM	Title V Applications Tawanna Reid, Env. Consultant, Chemicals and Food Permitting Section; and Jerry Swinea	1:00	Application Process and Forms John Fuss, Manager, Surface Coating and Combustion Permitting Section
1:30 PM	Insignificant activities and insignificant emission units Julie Verissimo	1:20	Permitting for Non-Title V Facilities Tracy Kefauver, Env. Consultant, Composite Materials Permitting Section; and John Fuss
2:05 PM	Break	2:00	Break
2:20 PM	Title V Inspections and Reports Amanda Davis, Johnson City Environmental Field Office Manager; and Jerry Swinea	2:15	Exemptions and insignificant activities Julie Verissimo
3:15 PM	Title V Permit Modifications Tawanna Reid; and Julie Verissimo	2:50	Small Business Env. Assistance Program Donovan Grimwood, Small Business Ombudsman; and Ginna McWhirter, SBEAP Outreach and Education Coordinator
3:50 PM	Title V Fees Olga Jacobsen, Manager, Emission Inventory and Fees	3:20	Recordkeeping and Reporting John Fuss, Manager, Surface Coating and Combustion Permitting Section; and Tracy Kefauver
		4:00	The Role of Field Services Daniel Bowers, Environmental Specialist, Johnson City EFO; and Amanda Davis, Johnson City Environmental Field Office Manager
4:30	Adjourn		