The screenshot shows the Tennessee Department of Environment & Conservation website. At the top left is the TN logo and the text "Department of Environment & Conservation". Below this is a blue navigation bar with the text "Division of Remediation (DoR)" and a menu with items: "Home", "All DoR Sites", "Drycleaner Sites", "State Promulgated List", "VOAP Sites", and "Sites with Controls (IC/ECs)". The main content area has a large heading "Welcome to the Division of Remediation Dataviewer". Below the heading is a paragraph: "To request information on a DOR site, please use the TDEC Public Information Request Form. Please include the site number or address of the site in your request." This is followed by a disclaimer: "Disclaimer: Some files may not be available digitally. Information updates nightly and data inaccuracies may exist." Below the disclaimer is a light blue box with the text: "Click on a site id to view available documents for that site. Note: not all documents are currently available." Underneath this box is a dropdown menu labeled "Available Reports" with a downward arrow icon. Below the dropdown is another paragraph: "To navigate to the available reports, use the tabs in the blue bar across the top of the page." At the bottom left is a paragraph: "All DoR Sites- Sites that are or have been under the supervision of any program in Division of Remediation including VOAP, DCERP, SRP, etc. This page also allows you to choose additional program specific site reports using the 'Primary Report' dropdown." At the bottom right is the TN logo.

1 of 25

The map displays numerous remediation sites (grey dots) scattered across Tennessee, with a high concentration in the Nashville area. Major cities and counties are labeled, including Memphis, Nashville, Knoxville, Chattanooga, and various counties like Shelby, Davidson, and Hamilton. A search bar at the top left allows for finding sites by address, ID, name, or coordinates. Navigation controls (zoom in/out, home, refresh) are on the left. A scale bar indicates 60 miles. A '1 of 25' indicator is present in the center of the map.
