

*Blueprints
& Bites Delivered
To Your Desk*

March
31

Architects touch every aspect of daily life through the places where Tennesseans live, work, and gather. They play an important role in protecting the health, safety, and welfare of the public.

We recognize the time, dedication, and thoughtful leadership required of your role, and we thank you for all that you do each day.

Two snack boxes will be delivered to each office. No RSVP necessary.

Courtesy of the American Institute of Architects, Tennessee