

“CONTINUE TO REMEMBER THOSE IN PRISON
AS IF YOU WERE TOGETHER
WITH THEM IN PRISON.”

Hebrews 13:3

YOU'RE INVITED

Why Our Faith Should Shape the Way We Look at Our Criminal Justice System

A discussion over breakfast

Date: Thursday, December 7th
Time: 7:45 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.
Place: Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission
Southern Baptist Convention Auditorium
901 Commerce Street, Suite 550
Nashville, Tenn. 37203

Join us for breakfast and fellowship with some of the leading voices in faith-based criminal justice reform. The Church has both the unique ability and unparalleled capacity to confront the staggering crisis of crime and incarceration in America and to respond with restorative solutions for communities, victims, and individuals responsible for crime. This is a great opportunity to come together as a community to discuss this pressing issue.

FEATURING:

Dr. Russell Moore, ERLC ♦ Craig DeRoche, Prison Fellowship
Pat Nolan, ACUF

With a special address from Lindsay Holloway, a formerly incarcerated individual, sharing her story of redemption.
