Distilled Spirits Council Hosts Small Distiller Festival in Nashville for International Media at Corsair Artisan Distillery

Tasting and Dinner Gives Small Distillers Opportunity to Showcase Regional Products during 2014 American Whiskey Trail Media Tour across VA, KY and TN

WHAT: Reporters from around the globe (including China, U.K., India, Japan, etc.) will be coming to Nashville to experience an evening of barbecue, blues and the best distilled spirits from the region's finest small distillers as part of the Distilled Spirits Council's 2014 American Whiskey Trail media tour.

Over 15 different small distillers will showcase their products at the Corsair Artisan Distillery's Nashville Taproom – featuring music from local Nashville artists.

If you would like to cover this event and participate in the spirits tasting and reception, please contact Ben Jenkins at 202-682-8840 or bjenkins@discus.org.

WHO: Reporters from China, India, Europe and other countries around the globe will be joining over a dozen regional small distillers for the Small Distiller Festival, including three Nashville distillers: host Corsair Artisan Distillery, Nelson's Green Brier Distillery, and Popcorn Sutton Distilling.

WHEN: Saturday, April 26
7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

WHERE: Corsair Artisan Distillery's Nashville Taproom
1200 Clinton Street, Nashville
