

2014-15 STATE OF EDUCATION IN TENNESSEE

COMING JANUARY 16, 2015
SHERATON NASHVILLE DOWNTOWN
623 UNION STREET

The 2014-15 State of Education in Tennessee report provides an update from the State Collaborative on Reforming Education (SCORE) on the state's work in education over the last year, highlighting both successes and challenges faced in districts and schools across Tennessee. A significant section of the report identifies education priorities for Tennessee in 2015, providing a framework for the important work that lies ahead for all education partners in our state, from teachers to policymakers.

Friday, January 16, 2015
1 p.m. Central
Sheraton Nashville Downtown
Capitol One Ballroom
623 Union Street
Nashville, Tennessee

Please join Senator Bill Frist, M.D., at the release event, which will highlight findings from the report and feature a panel discussion of Tennessee education stakeholders. A reception precedes the event at 12:30 p.m. Central, with the release event beginning at 1 p.m. Central.

There is limited seating for this event. If you plan to join us, please confirm your attendance promptly by emailing amber@tnscore.org or contacting us directly at (615) 727-1545.