TITLE

A RESOLUTION APPROVING THE ETHICS POLICY

BE IT RESOLVED by the Sumner County Board of County Commissioners meeting in regular session on this the 21st day of May, 2007, that this body hereby approves the Ethics Policy of Sumner County as set forth below:

CODE OF ETHICS
SUMNER COUNTY, TENNESSEE

Section 1. Definitions.

- (1) "County" means Sumner County, which includes all boards, committees, commissions, authorities, corporations or other instrumentalities appointed or created by the county or an official of the county, and specifically including the county school board, the county election commission, the county health department, and utility districts in the county.
- (2) "Officials and employees" means and includes any official, whether elected or appointed, officer, employee or servant, or any member of any board, agency, commission, authority or corporation (whether compensated or not), or any officer, employee or servant thereof, of the county.
- (3) "Personal interest" means, for the purpose of disclosure of personal interests in accordance with this Code of Ethics, a financial interest of the official or employee, or a financial interest of the official's or employee's spouse or child living in the same household or an authoritative position with any non-profit or for-profit organization which seeks contracts, donations, or benefits from the county, in the matter to be voted upon, regulated, supervised, or otherwise acted upon in an official capacity.

Section 2. Disclosure of personal interest in voting matters.

An official or employee with the responsibility to vote on a measure shall disclose during the meeting at which the vote takes place, before the vote and to be included in the minutes, any personal interest that affects or that would lead a reasonable person to infer that it affects the official's vote on the measure. In addition, the official or employee may, to the extent allowed by law, recuse himself or herself from voting on the measure.

Section 3. Disclosure of personal interest in non-voting matters.

An official or employee who must exercise discretion relative to any matter other than casting a vote and who has a personal interest in the matter that affects or that would lead a reasonable person to infer that it affects the exercise of the discretion shall disclose, before the exercise of the discretion when possible, the interest on the attached disclosure form and file the disclosure form with the county clerk. In addition, the official or employee may, to the extent allowed by law, recuse himself or herself from the exercise of discretion in the matter.

Section 4. Acceptance of gifts and other things of value.

An official or employee, or an official's or employee's spouse or child living in the same household, may not accept, directly or indirectly, any gift, money, gratuity, or other consideration or favor of any kind from anyone other than the county:

- (1) For the performance of an act, or refraining from performance of an act, that he would be expected to perform, or refrain from performing, in the regular course of his duties; or
- (2) That a reasonable person would understand was intended to influence the vote, official action, or judgment of the official or employee in executing county business.

It shall not be considered a violation of this policy for an official or employee to receive entertainment, food, refreshments, meals, health screenings, amenities, foodstuffs, or beverages that are provided in connection with a conference sponsored by an established or recognized statewide association of county government officials or by an umbrella or affiliate organization of such statewide association of county government officials. It shall not be considered a violation of this policy for an employee or official to receive a monetary award from a national chartered organization of not more than $100.

Section 5. Ethics Complaints.

A County Ethics Committee (the "Ethics Committee") consisting of five members shall be appointed to one-year terms by the County Executive with confirmation by the county legislative body, to be appointed each year at the same time as internal committees of the county legislative body. At least three members of the committee shall be members of the county legislative body; one member shall be a constitutional county officer or, should no constitutional county officer be willing to accept appointment, an additional member of the county legislative body; and the remaining member may be either a member of a board, committee, commission, authority, corporation, or other instrumentality governed by this policy, or an additional member of the county legislative body. The Ethics Committee shall convene as soon as practicable after their appointment and elect a chair and a secretary. The records of the Ethics Committee shall be maintained by the secretary and shall be filed in the office of the county clerk, where they shall be open to public inspection.

Questions and complaints regarding violations of this Code of Ethics or of any violation of state law governing ethical conduct should be directed to the chair of the Ethics Committee. Complaints shall be in writing and signed by the person making the complaint, and shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts upon which the complaint is based.

The County Ethics Committee shall investigate any credible complaint against an official or employee charging any violation of this Code of Ethics, or may undertake an investigation on its own initiative when it acquires information indicating a possible violation, and make recommendations for action to end or seek retribution for any activity that, in the Committee's judgment, constitutes a violation of this Code of Ethics. If a member of the Committee is the subject of a complaint, such member shall recuse himself or herself from all proceedings involving such complaint.

The Committee may:

- (1) Refer the matter to the County Attorney for a legal opinion and/or recommendations for action;
- (2) In the case of an official, refer the matter to the county legislative body for possible public censure if the county legislative body finds such action warranted;
- (3) In the case of an employee, refer the matter to the official responsible for supervision of the employee for possible disciplinary action if the official finds discipline warranted;
- (4) In a case involving possible violation of state statutes, refer the matter to the district attorney for possible ouster or criminal prosecution;

The interpretation that a reasonable person in the circumstances would apply shall be used in interpreting and enforcing this Code of Ethics. When a violation of this Code of Ethics also constitutes a violation of a personnel policy or a civil service policy, the violation shall be dealt with as a violation of the personnel or civil service provisions rather than as a violation of this Code of Ethics.

Section 6. Applicable State Laws.

In addition to the ethical principles set out in this Code of Ethics, state laws also provide a framework for the ethical behavior of county officials and employees in the performance of their duties. Officials and employees should familiarize themselves with the state laws applicable to their office or position and the performance of their duties. To the extent that an issue is addressed by state law (law of general application, public law of local application, local option law, or private act), the provisions of that state law, to the extent they are more restrictive, shall control. SUMMARY OF SUMNER COUNTY, TENNESSEE
CODE OF ETHICS

Any personal interests in voting or non-voting matters that relate to any county matters are to be disclosed.

A personal interest (of official, employee, spouse or child living in the same household) is a financial interest or an authoritative position with any non-profit or for-profit organization which seeks contracts, donations, or benefits from the county which would be voted on, regulated, supervised, or dealt with in an official capacity.

With a voting matter, the disclosure may disallow the person from voting on a particular matter, if the disclosure shows a conflict of interest. (As set forth below)

With non-voting matters, the disclosure form shall be filled out and filed with the county clerk. (Form Attached)

Any time a disclosure of a personal interest is to be made, a reasonable person standard is used, meaning if any reasonable person would be led to infer that a vote or an opinion of a person is affected, then disclosure is required.

Gifts in Exchange for an Act or Non-Performance of an Act

Any official, employee or spouse or child living in the same household, may not accept any gift, money, gratuity, or other consideration or favor of any kind from anyone other than from the county.

Any gifts that give the appearance of tending to influence are banned from acceptance. An exception to this would be if an official or employee received entertainment, food, refreshments, meals, health screenings, greetings, amenities, or beverages or award (of up to $100.00 from an affiliated organization).
