

Incorporate College Activities into Lessons

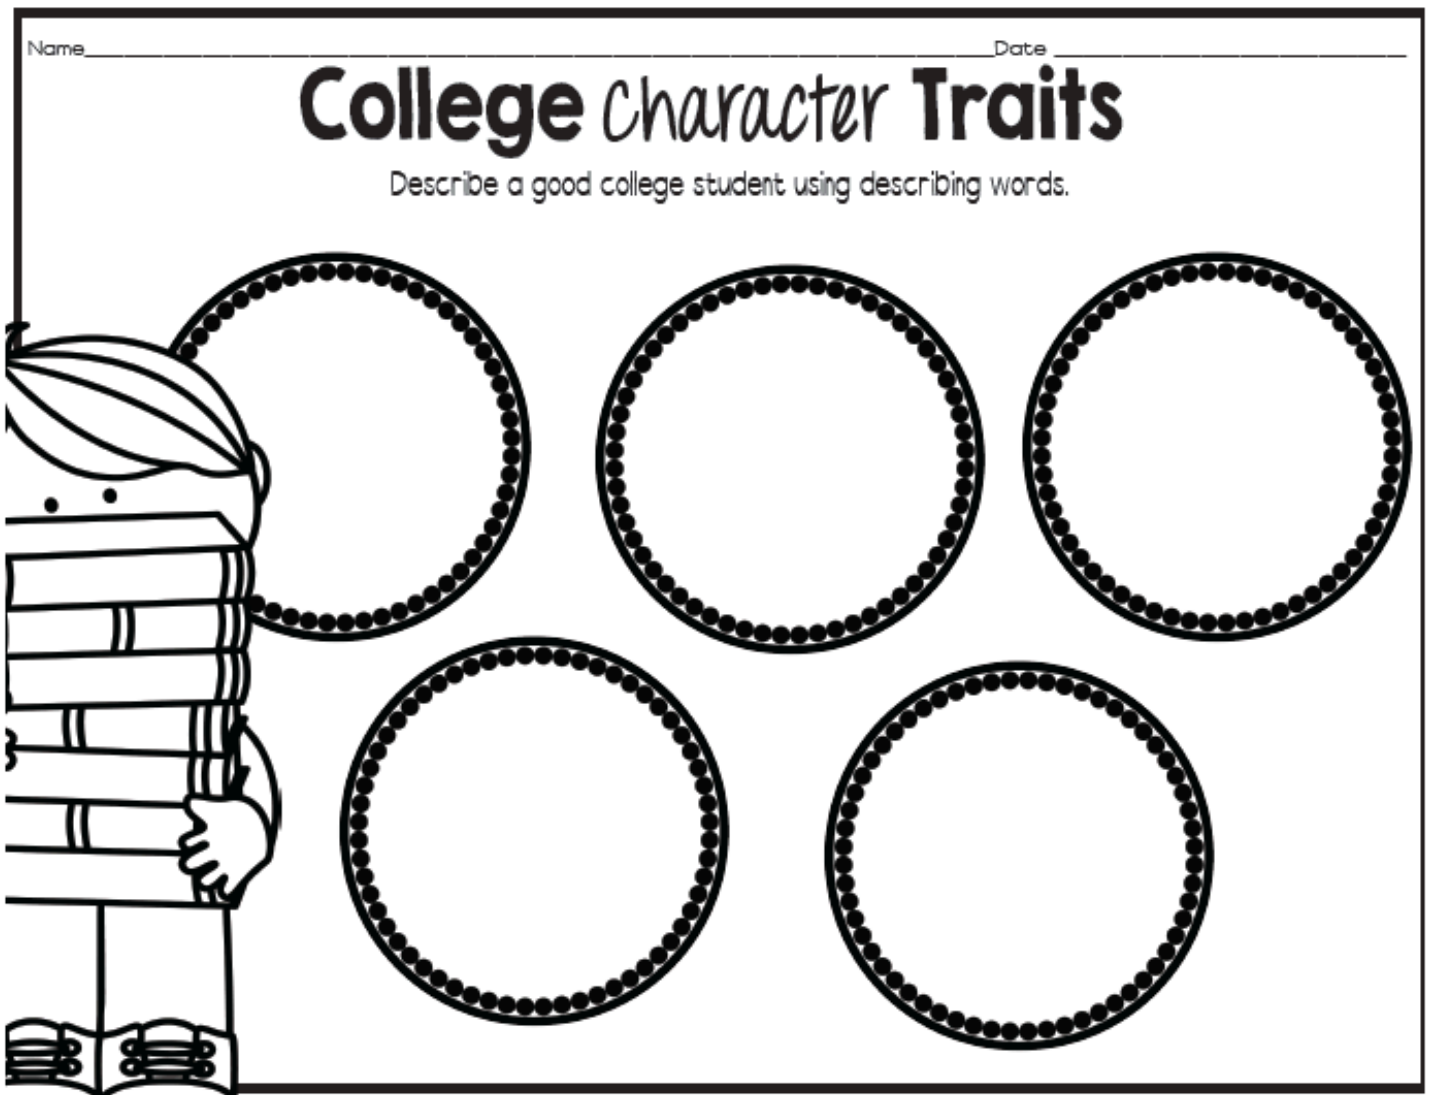

There are countless, creative ways to incorporate college concepts into everyday lessons during College Application and Exploration Week. Here are three samples of classroom activities that you can use during a balanced literacy block or in centers. These samples are free printables from the blog Lesson Plan Diva.

College Character Traits

Describe a good college student using describing words.

The worksheet is enclosed in a black rectangular border. At the top left, there is a line for 'Name' and at the top right, a line for 'Date'. The title 'College Character Traits' is written in a large, bold, sans-serif font. Below the title, the instruction 'Describe a good college student using describing words.' is written in a smaller, regular font. On the left side, there is a cartoon illustration of a character with long, wavy hair, wearing a striped shirt and pants, holding a stack of books. In the center and right areas, there are five large circles, each outlined with a dotted border, intended for students to write their descriptions.
