		1 Bid Submission – I see a section detailing where to submit by mail. Is there also an option to submit electronically?	See Supplier Helpful attachments in the event for how to register in Edison for electronic bidding.
		2 In the specification section it is mentioned that the masks should be made in the USA. So, do you mean that the masks must be made in the USA or will you accept them from other countries. 3 Must the masks be made in the USA?	Made in the USA requirement has been removed. See ITB 11665 Masks for Travel Kits Specifications Release #2 for revision to the specifications.
		4 Is there a specific timeline for delivery of goods at the 4 locations?	Shipping date in the Event Details is incorrect. See revision to 11665 Masks for Travel Kits Specifications. Shipment must be received by December 30, 2020.
		5 I'd like to confirm that samples are not requested at this time and shall not be submitted with our bid.	That is incorrect. See Bid Factor #15 Samples. Samples are requested by the State and must be received on or before the date and hour designated for the response opening. Response due date has been revised with this amendment: Tuesday, November 17, 2020, by noon Central Time.
		6 I noticed on the youth mask – the visual that was in your specifications document did not match the art files. Should I go with the one from	Note: The State updated the adult mask file provided in the link below on 11/2/2020 to properly place the stars. Also note, the

If a re-submission is received, the original submission will not be considered. Please use the file from the link below for both pre-production vectorized designs, with PNG screenshots of each file: Travel Kit Face Masks Password: FbQUzT2K https://tdtdfiles.egnyte.com/fl/Y6RXPQaJyL
	7	The specifications say the earloop is to be 100% cotton. Is that correct? 100% cotton would weaken the elasticity of the loop.	See ITB 11665 Masks for Travel Kits Specifications Release #2 for revision to the specifications.
	8	Can you confirm the quantities for each location?	See Version #2 of the Bid Event 11665. Line Item quantities have been revised.
