

COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy rates by public health region

Rate per 1,000 live births
45.7 77.7

© 2022 Mapbox © OpenStreetMap

From March 1, 2020 to February 28, 2022 there were 157,039 pregnancies completed in TN, of which 10,727 (7%) had a COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

Age distribution by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

Racial/ethnic distributions by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

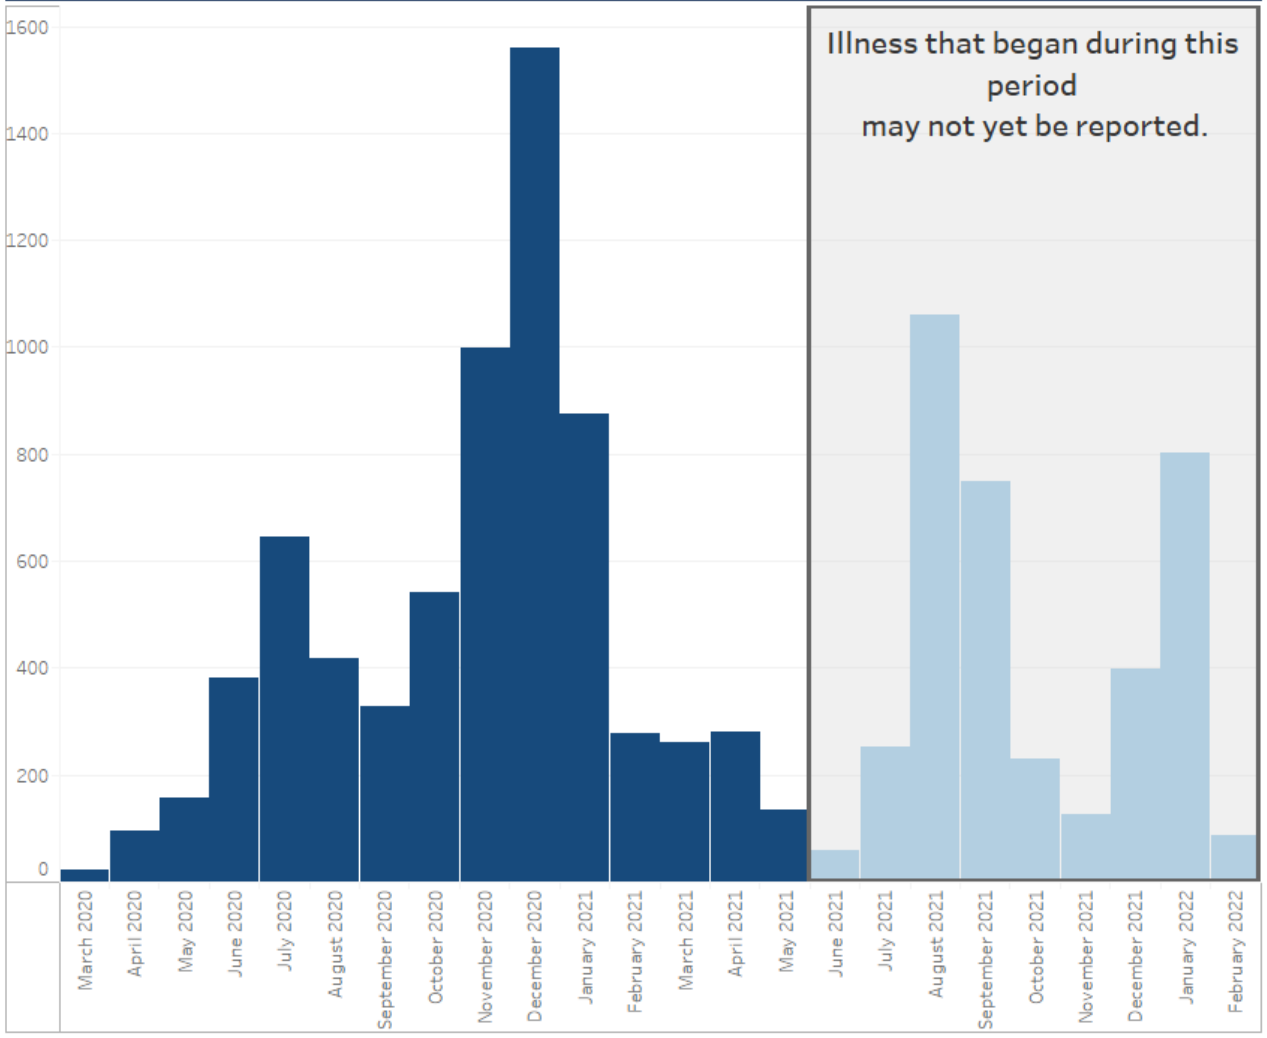

COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy
 Yes
 No

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.

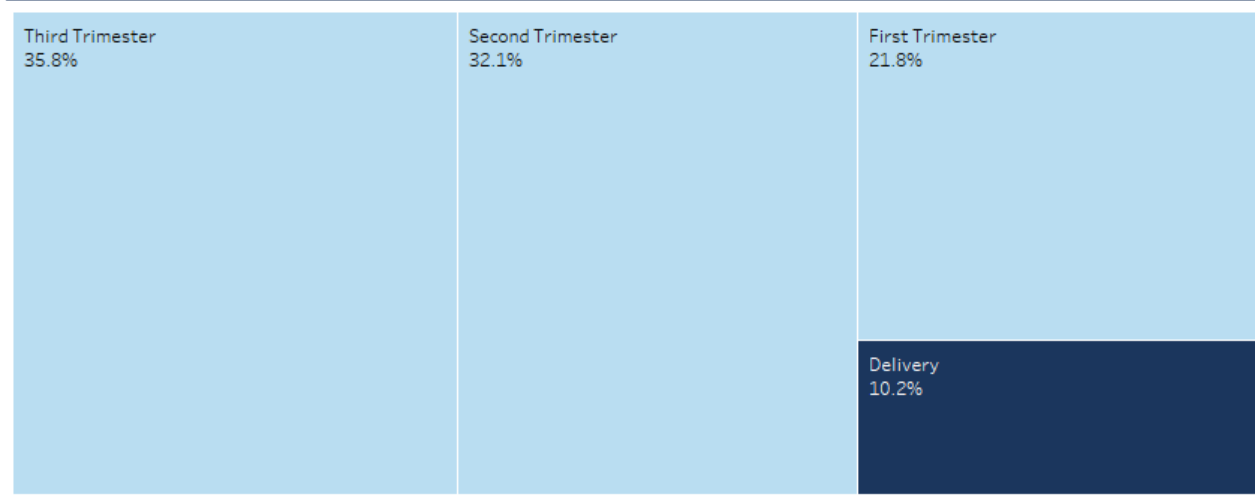

Percentage of infants born to a COVID-19 case in pregnancy

Timing of COVID-19 infection among cases in pregnancy†

Timing of COVID-19 infection in pregnancy

June 2021 through February 2022 should be interpreted with caution as COVID-19 cases may still be pregnant thus underestimating these numbers.

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.

Breastfeeding initiation by timing of COVID-19 diagnosis

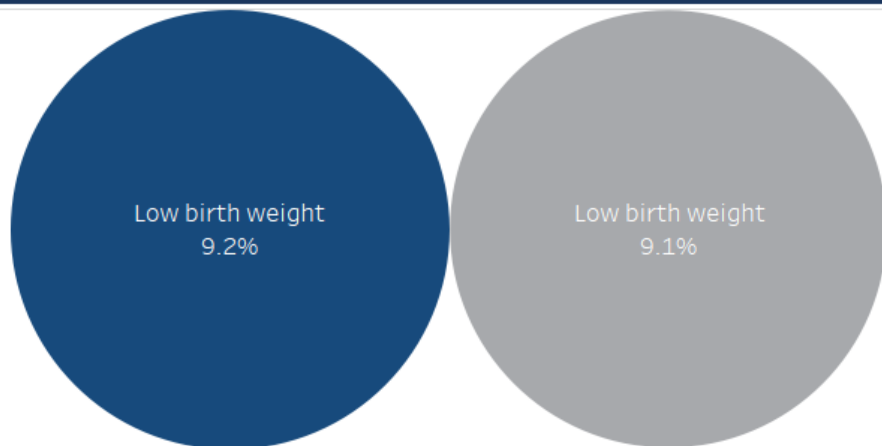

Grey line represents breastfeeding initiation percentage among those with no indication of COVID-19 in pregnancy.

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.

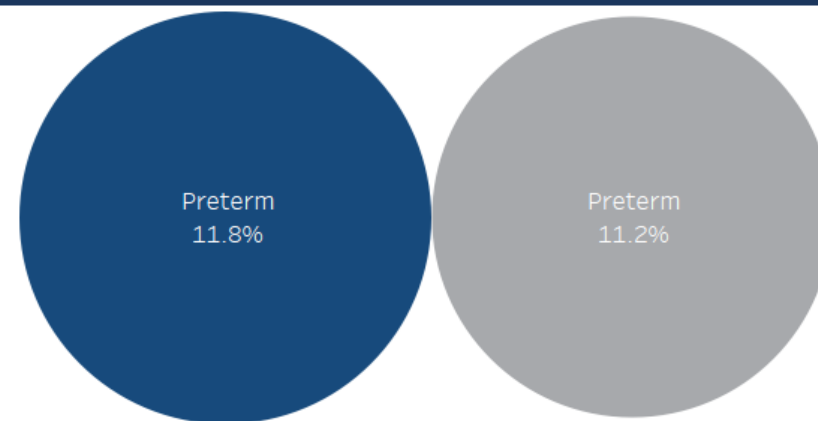

COVID-19 diagnosis in Pregnancy

■ Yes ■ No

Low birth weight by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy

Preterm birth by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy†

†Eligible preterm births included only those with a COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy prior to 37 weeks gestation.

Racial/ethnic distributions of low birth weight by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy‡

Racial/ethnic distributions of preterm birth by COVID-19 diagnosis in pregnancy§

*Only pregnancies that have resulted in a live birth are included in these data, therefore data for pregnancies that are ongoing are not presented here.