

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS FOR ALL In Tennessee

Emergency events impact different groups in different ways, and the more members of a community who are prepared when disaster strikes, the more resilient that community will be.

EMERGENCY EVENTS LIKE

Global Pandemic

Record High Temperatures

100-Year
Storms

Drought

IMPACT A COMMUNITY'S

Physical Health

Community Cohesion

Mental Health

AND REQUIRE

Trauma-
Informed Care

Inclusive Planning Committees

Inclusive Planning Can Focus On:

Rural Communities

Improve access to emergency response services

Racial & Ethnic Minorities

Include groups in decision-making processes
Develop language-inclusive prep information

Individuals with Disabilities

Ensure evacuation plans include everyone

Low Socio- Economic Status

Resource allocation post-disaster focusing on those in poverty/unstable housing

POLICIES & PROGRAMS

- The Tennessee Disaster Support Network is a web-based resource to assist TN communities in meeting their needs before, during, and after a disaster.
- Ready TN is an app that can help you stay up-to-date on emergency notifications for the state.

PLANNING FOR COLLABORATIVE ACTION

- Host emergency preparedness events in your community, helping neighbors create emergency kits and develop plans with their families.
- Educate leaders on different needs of people in your community considering factors such as age, disabilities, language proficiency, cultural backgrounds, and medical conditions.

BARRIERS TO CHANGE

Lack of community cohesion

Under-resourced infrastructure

Standard
emergency plans do not account for different needs

Read
More
Here