

Initial License for Paramedic-Critical Care (PARA-CC)

Individuals seeking EMS Professional License in TN must meet the following Requirements:

- Must meet all the EMT- Paramedic requirements in rule 1200-12-1- .04(2) and must be currently licensed as a paramedic in good standing in Tennessee;
- Must submit completed application for licensure;
- Must pay all required application and license fees;
- Successful completion of a Board approved Critical Care Paramedic Program;
- Successful completion with a passing score as established by the Board on an approved endorsement examination;
- After the third attempt to complete the exam an individual must show remediation from the critical care program before they may take the examination again;
- After six unsuccessful attempts in less than two years, the individual must repeat the entire training before attempting examination;
- Endorsement must be obtained within two years of completion of an approved course;
- Individuals completing a Critical Care Paramedic Course prior to July 2007 may make application for endorsement;
- Individuals must show documentation of completion of a Critical Care Paramedic Course prior to July 2007;
- Successful completion with a passing score as established by the Board on an approved endorsement examination;
- Individuals will have two (2) years to complete the examination requirements before being required to repeat the course.